MISSION STATEMENT: The mission of The Dayton Woman's Club is to strengthen our community, to preserve our historic clubhouse, and to enhance the lives of others through volunteer service, friendship, and leadership development.

UPCOMING EVENTS (OPEN TO THE PUBLIC)

FRIDAY NIGHT DINNER (speaker: Chris Saunders from the DAI: "Why knowing about the Silk Route helps you understand today's events.") Friday, June 23rd

Our speaker for the Friday Night Dinner on June 23 will be well-known travel planner Chris Saunders who for 16 years at the D.A.I. organized over 125 trips for the art museum including three trips along the Chinese Silk Road.

As China's president, Xi Jinping is laying out plans to establish a "New Silk Road" across Central Asia. You will have the opportunity to refresh your knowledge of the Silk Route and the importance of trade between nations. Chris has slides from her three Silk Road trips and will share her experiences with you. Don't miss this exceptional opportunity to travel on the Silk Route.

Dayton Aviation Heritage Historical Park

Wednesday, June 28th

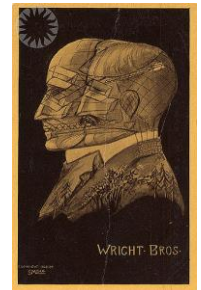

Ryan Quall, Director of Dayton Aviation Heritage National Historical Park, will speak about what it was like living in Dayton at the time the Wright brothers were working on their first flight. He will be glad to answer our questions about this park, located on N. William Street right over the bridge from our clubhouse. Be sure to invite your gentlemen friends to this special historical program. Many Daytonians do not know about this local treasure. Do not be one of them.
