DISSOLUTION: In the event of dissolution, all of the remaining assets and property of the organization shall, after payment of necessary expenses, thereof be distributed to such organizations as shall qualify under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Federal tax laws, or to the Federal government or State or local government for a public purpose, subject to the approval of a Justice of the Supreme Court of the State of Connecticut.

- CLAUSES:
- 1) Notwithstanding any other provisions of these articles, the organization is organized exclusively for one or more of the purposes as specified in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, and shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by an organization exempt from Federal income tax under IRC 501(c)(3) or corresponding provisions of any subsequent tax laws.
  - 2) No part of net earnings of the organization shall inure to the benefit of any member, trustee, director, officer of the organization, or any private individual (except that reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered to or for the organization), and no member, trustee, director, officer of the organization, or any private individual shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the organization's assets on dissolution of the organization.
  - 3) No substantial part of the activities of the organization shall be carrying propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation (except as otherwise provided by IRC 501(h)) or participating in, or intervening in (including the publication or distribution of statements), any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidates or public office.
  - 4) In any taxable year in which the organization is a private foundation as described in IRC 509(a), the organization shall distribute its income for said period at such time and manner as not to subject it to tax under IRC 4942, and the organization shall not (a) engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in IRC 4942(d), (b) retain any excess business holdings as defined in IRC 4943(c), (c) make any investments in such a manner as to subject the organization to tax under 4944, or (d) make any taxable expenditures as defined in IRC 4945(d) or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Federal tax laws.

BYLAWS

I. MEETINGS

The Connecticut Piecemakers Quilt Guild will meet, when possible, from September to June on the second Monday of each month at a time and place to be determined by the Board.

II. MEMBERSHIP

1. Membership is open to those who share a love of quilting.
2. A member is defined as one who has paid dues for the current year.
3. Alumni memberships are available to former members unable to attend meetings, but wish to maintain their association on a limited basis. Alumni members are entitled to receive the monthly newsletter and can participate in workshops and bus trips, if available. Attendance at one general meeting is included. Alumni members shall not be counted in membership totals.
4. A guest may attend a lecture/meeting for a $5 fee, which shall be applied to membership dues if she/he joins the Guild. A guest may attend a workshop meeting, space permitting, and will pay the entire fee as designated in the Practices and Procedures. Guests are not entitled to any subsidy given to members from the treasury.
5. The Board, taking into consideration the meeting facility's capacity as set by the local fire code, shall set the number of members of the Guild.

III. DUES

1. Membership dues shall be thirty dollars ($30.00) per year (July 1 to June 30). With Board approval, membership dues may be changed annually and announced in June of each year.
2. Alumnus membership dues shall be fifteen dollars ($15.00) per year (July 1 to June 30).
3. Members who join after January 31 of any year shall pay one-half of appropriate dues.
4. Only dues-paying members are entitled to vote.
5. Dues shall be used for sponsoring programs and speakers, correspondence, newsletter printing and mailing, projects, special supplies, etc. Members may be asked to contribute additional funds on the occasion of a particularly costly program or project.
6. Dues shall be payable no later than the September meeting of any given year.

IV. OFFICERS

1. Elected Officers shall be:
  - a. President

PRACTICES AND PROCEDURES OF THE CONNECTICUT PIECEMAKERS QUILT GUILD

1. Refreshments: coffee, tea and snacks will be available prior to the meeting and during the break. Members will be asked to provide snacks on a rotating basis.
2. The Connecticut Piecemakers Quilt Guild Library: will be open prior to the meeting and during the break.
3. Meetings: please sign in prior to the start of the business meeting.
4. Guild Courtesy: Please do your visiting before the meeting and during the break. Please turn off all cellular phones and beepers prior to the meeting.
5. Inclement Weather: In inclement weather any meeting will be canceled if the Town of Trumbull cancels school for the day. If school is delayed, then the meeting will take place as scheduled.
6. Workshops: Fees are due upon sign-up. There will be no refunds. If you are unable to take your class, you can arrange for a substitute. You may request names from the Waiting List from the Program Chairperson. If a workshop has a “minimum” requirement and cannot be filled, the workshop will be cancelled and refunds issued. If space is available nonmembers may participate in workshops for an increased fee.
7. Quilt Show: In order to fulfill the stated goals to promote the art and craft of quilting, each member is expected to actively participate in and with the Quilt Show.
8. Membership Lists: Lists may be printed upon request for members with no access to email. The Membership List is for personal use of the members. Any other use is strictly prohibited.
9. Newsletter: The monthly newsletter will be distributed to all members prior to the Guild meeting.
10. Connecticut Piecemakers Quilt Guild Name Tags/Buttons: Please wear your tag/button to each meeting. Failure to wear your tag/button will result in a 50¢ fine that goes to our Library fund towards the purchase of new books.
11. Children Attendance Policy: Children of members 14 years or older who express a love for quilting may attend meetings for the guest fee. No children may attend paid workshops.
12. Meeting place: The general rules of the meeting facility shall be followed by the Guild and its members.
