LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT

The purposes of CenterLine Dressage: "to promote interest in and further the knowledge of dressage; to conduct dressage events and activities; to provide educational forums" from the Bylaws of CenterLine Dressage, adopted August 1983.

As of January 30, we have 60 members, almost halfway to the 2011 goal of 125. If you have not already done so, please take the time to re-up either on line or by using the membership form that is a part of this issue. The consensus of the CLD Board was to keep the present dues structure through the year. Dues will rise for the 2012 year as USDF raised the amount each GMO pays per member for 2011.

Happily Kathi Cannon agreed to be Safety Officer for 2011. Deb Porter, newly elected to the CLD Board, has agreed to be Volunteer Co-ordinator for the CLD Classic I & II. She will not be in town for IceBreaker, April 16, or FireCracker, July 2, so we do need another volunteer to be the Co-ordinator for our schooling shows. It is a great way to get in touch with other CLD members. Please call or e-mail me if you want to know more about the office of Volunteer Co-ordinator and are willing to help.

Many of you know Julia Trone. She has been a member of CLD over the years, since a teenager. She is now working at Lincoln High School where a fund has been set up to help with her bone marrow transplant expenses in her fight against leukemia. If you would like to help, please send a contribution to Lincoln High School, 1000 Primm Road, Lincoln, Illinois, 62656. Make the check payable to Lincoln High School and put "Julie Trone" in the memo line, please.

It has been a rough winter thus far for horse keepers. You will find a lot of help at this link to keep your four-footed friends safe and happy: <http://www.TheHorse.com/enews/02042011.html>

To turn to Spring thoughts, Paula Briney and Marilyn Weber have agreed to chair our first scheduled event of the new season on April 9, the Show Prep Clinic. This is a joint effort with ARAB, Inc., the local Arabian Horse Association affiliate. New tests for 2011 will be demonstrated and those interested in learning to scribe will have guidance from some pros, John and Nancy Simpson and Leslie Burket.

With the continued growth of ARAB, Inc. dressage (managed by our own inimitable John Simpson) over five days at the Illinois State Fairgrounds, the area needs more trained scribes. If you have always wanted to learn, this is your chance. Lunch will be potluck. In the afternoon Chrissie Simpson will show you how to braid and Show Secretary Jeanne Craver will help you with the increasingly complicated entry blanks.

All are cordially welcome to attend the next CLD Board Meeting at StarWest on Saturday February 19, 2:00 p.m.

I am just a phone call or an e-mail away. Please get in touch.

NEW 2011 USEF DRESSAGE TESTS

The United States Equestrian Federation dressage tests for Training through Fourth Levels are now available. These new editions are effective with the beginning of the 2011 USEF competition year (December 1, 2010) and will remain in use for the next four years, until November 30, 2014.

The USEF Dressage Test Booklet is now available. This convenient pocket-size booklet, which contains all movements, directives, and test information for Training through Fourth Level, can be ordered from USEF for a cover price of only $5 each (plus shipping). This booklet also includes the USDF Intro Tests. Order forms are available through www.usef.org.

Complete USEF score sheets are posted for free download on the CenterLine Dressage website at www.centerlinedressage.com/downloads.html or from the USEF website, through the "My USEF Account" page. Anyone, whether a USEF member or not, may sign up for free My USEF access.

The test movements are also available on the USEF website at: www.usef.org/_iframes/breedsdisciplines/discipline/alldressage/dressagetestmov.aspx.

USDF score sheets, including Intro, Freestyles (First – Fourth Level), Quadrille, Pas de Deux, etc. are available from the USDF office. www.usdf.org.

FEI tests, including Prix St. George through Grand Prix and the FEI Young Horse tests, are available for download through the FEI website at www.fei.org.

NEW USEF HELMET RULES

Effective March 1, 2011, the following rules apply to USEF recognized Dressage Competitions and Regular Competitions holding Dressage classes:

1. Riders under age 18 must wear protective headgear, as defined by DR120.5 and in compliance with GR801, at all times while mounted on the competition grounds. This includes non-competing riders as well as those competing at any level.
2. While on horses competing in national level tests (Fourth Level and below), riders must wear protective headgear as defined by DR120.5 and in compliance with GR801, at all times while mounted on the competition grounds. This includes non-competing riders on horses competing in national level tests.
3. While on horses competing in USEF or FEI Young Horse Tests, and FEI Junior Tests, riders must wear protective headgear as defined by DR120.5 and in compliance with GR801, at all times while mounted on the competition grounds.
4. All riders competing in Para-Equestrian tests must wear protective headgear at all times while mounted on the competition grounds. Riders who compete in PE tests must wear protective headgear on every horse they ride, no matter the level or test.
5. All riders of any age while on non-competing horses must wear protective headgear at all times while mounted on the competition grounds.
6. All riders under age 18 and all riders while on horses competing in national level tests, who choose to wear Armed Services or police uniform, must wear protective headgear as defined in DR120.5 and in compliance with GR801 at all times while mounted on the competition grounds. Riders age 18 and over who wear Armed Services or police uniform on horses that are competing only in FEI levels and tests at the Prix St. Georges level and above must wear either protective headgear or the appropriate military/police cap or hat for their branch of service.
7. When a horse is competing in both national and FEI levels or tests (e.g. Fourth Level and PSG), the rider must wear protective headgear at all times when mounted on that horse on the competition grounds and during all tests.
8. While on horses that are competing only in FEI levels and tests at the Prix St. Georges level and above (including FEI Young Rider Tests, the USEF Developing Prix St. Georges Test and the USEF Brentina Cup Test), riders age 18 and over are not required to wear protective headgear in warm up or during competition. However, these riders may wear protective headgear without penalty from the judge.
9. In FEI-recognized (CDI, CDI-Y, CDI-J, CDI-P, etc.) classes, FEI rules take precedence and protective headgear is permitted but not required.
10. All riders while on horses competing in national level classes such as Equitation, Materiale and DSHB Under Saddle are required to wear protective headgear at all times when mounted on the competition grounds.

Protective headgear is defined as a riding helmet which meets or exceeds ASTM (American Society for Testing and Materials)/SEI (Safety Equipment Institute) standards for equestrian use and carries the SEI tag. The headgear and harness must be secured and properly fitted. Any rider violating this rule at any time must immediately be prohibited from further riding until such headgear is properly in place.

INCREASED PRIZE MONEY AT REGIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS

The United States Dressage Federation (USDF) and Great American Insurance Group are pleased to announce that prize money for the Great American/USDF Regional Dressage Championships has been announced for 2011 series.

In total, over $155,000 in prize money will be awarded in the 2011 Great American/USDF Regional Championships, divided evenly among the nine regions and 35 divisions that are offered. Champions in each region and division will receive $296 in prize money and an embroidered jacket and cooler both provided by SmartPak, Inc., official horse supplement feeding sponsor of USDF. Reserve champions in each region and division will receive $197 in prize money, along with a saddle pad provided by the Great American Insurance Group, title sponsor of the championships.

“It is with great pleasure that we continue to provide recognition to these outstanding competitors through our sponsorship of the regional championship program,” stated Kathy Stringer, Great American Insurance Group Marketing Director of the Equine Division, Ken Standlee, President of the Equine Division, and Jim Mitchell, Vice President of the Farm Division.

“We’re so pleased that through the generous support of our sponsors, we are able to see this program expand and be able to provide more prize money and recognition for our competitors each year,” adds Cindy Vimont, USDF Senior Director.

CLD MEMBER SPOTLIGHT

Amanda Graham, Glenarm IL

At the CLD Awards Banquet on November 13, 2010, member Amanda Graham of Glenarm was awarded the CLD Academic Scholarship.

Amanda Graham has been a member of CLD for a number of years. She is currently enrolled at Barnes Jewish College, Goldfarb School of Nursing in St. Louis, MO. Amanda will complete her Bachelor of Science in Nursing in April of 2012. She intends to pursue a Masters level degree.

Amanda was introduced to horses as a small child and has loved them ever since. She has been a member of the Sangamon Valley Pony Club and still enjoys jumping horses. Amanda has taken dressage lessons and also enjoys trail riding. Occasionally she takes a horse with her to visit her aunt, where she gets to chase cows.

Amanda’s current mount is a four-year-old POA/Welch cross pony named Dillard. He had a rough start before he came to live with Amanda but he is coming along well. He has a lovely disposition and she intends to keep him for her children. Amanda is a Certified Equine Sports Massage Therapist, which Dillard enjoys.

Amanda has been co-manager of the CLD Icebreaker Schooling Show for the past two years. She enjoys watching the younger kids ride and show their horses.

CLD MEMBER AMONG "L" PROGRAM GRADUATES

On behalf of our membership, the CLD Board of Directors wishes to congratulate long-time club member and fellow Board member Paula Briney on her graduation with distinction from the USDF "L" Education Program.

The USDF "L" Education Program is designed to prepare candidates to enter the United States Equestrian Federation "r" Judges Training Program, to qualify individuals to judge schooling shows, and to give competitors, trainers, and instructors greater insight into the evaluative techniques of judging dressage. The program also serves to provide continuing education for licensed judges. The "L" Program is an excellent opportunity for all USDF members to learn from licensed judges in order to improve their scores and view other rides from a judge's perspective, whether or not they plan on becoming licensed judges themselves. "L" Programs are conducted by a faculty of USDF-approved United States Equestrian Federation "S"-licensed dressage judges who have experience in teaching judge-training programs.

Graduating the program "With Distinction" is a prerequisite to entering the United States Equestrian Federation (USEF)"r" Dressage Judge Training Program.

For more information about the USDF "L" Program, to contact a USDF "L" graduate, for a calendar of USDF "L" education programs, or for details on hosting an "L" Program education session, visit www.usdf.org or contact USDF at (859) 971-2277 or by e-mail at lprogram@usdf.org.

MINUTES FROM THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS MEETING

CLD Minutes

StarWest, January 16, 2011

President Alice Martin called the meeting to order at 2:20 p.m.

Members present:

Alice Martin, Kelley Clausing, Kathi Cannon, Sue Graham, Amanda Graham, Teri Morenz, Paula Briney, John Simpson, and Nancy Simpson. Janet Fitch and Kelly Griffith joined via telephone.

Reports of Officers:

Treasurer: Alice reported for Marie Meadows. The years long $1,733.61 discrepancy between the bank statement and the checkbook register is now resolved in our favor. The checkbook balance is $9,806.52. Bills from Classic, the banquet at Illini Country Club, the Ishoy Clinic and others have been paid.

Membership: Alice reported for Anne Scrivner. There is a discrepancy in the number of current members (either 52 or 54 members paid for 2011). Alice suggested we look at additional ways to reach out to our members in a more direct and personal way. Examples would be birthday notes, notes of appreciation, etc. Anne Scrivner was told by USDF to only send them the names of NEW members, not to re-send our complete list of members.

Newsletter: Kelley Clausing reported that a newsletter will be out the first week of February. We have about 133 followers on Facebook.

Webmaster: No recent statistics were available.

Awards: Alice reported for Marilyn Weber. She reported the results from the survey taken at the Awards Banquet. There were 33 surveys completed. 30 favored including additional awards, rather than continue to award only pieces of china. Paula Briney will check with Illini Country Club to see if the November 12, 2011, date is available there and what menu options are possible.

Education Day: Alice reported for Kate Fleming Kuhn. We discussed a series of clinics, the first four being subsidized for youth and AA attendance:

First, Emily Wagner. She is the person to whom we donated money so that she could take her horse to Germany and placed the highest any American has placed with her Developing Young Horse, Wake Up, a homebred. In exchange, she agreed to give a clinic to CLD members, charging only her travel expenses. No date has been set, but summer months were suggested.

Second, Amanda Johnson ($600.00 per day, no expenses) will do a clinic at Tower Hill.

Third, Nancy Harris ($500.00 per day, expenses to be split with Al Khamsa Dressage which she is judging), June 12 at Tower Hill.

Fourth, Melanie Michalak ($500.00 per day plus expenses). She will judge IceBreaker at StarWest on April 16, and clinic the following day, April 17, at Pratense Farm.

Fifth, Col. Carde will be at StarWest on April 29, 30, and May 1, 2011. The cost per ride is estimated at $150.00 – $175.00. CLD scholarships could apply to this clinic. After discussion, Paula Briney made a motion, and Kelley Clausing seconded, that CLD sponsor this Col. Carde Clinic. The motion passed unanimously.

Sixth, a clinic to teach scribing, completing show entry forms, riding the new tests, braiding and possibly other topics, is scheduled for April 9, at Pratense Farm. This day is jointly sponsored by ARAB, Inc. and CLD.

Seventh, Michael Poulin is being considered to be the Education Day clinician and speaker, November 11, 12, 13th. Deb Porter made a motion, Kelley Clausing seconded, hiring him. The motion passed, with one abstention.

Other points of discussion included:

Give up on hiring Scott Hassler because he did not express interest;

Horse Fair 2011 is March 4-6. Janet Fitch suggested that if CLD wants to participate that we do demonstration rides on non-traditional breeds. No vote was taken.

Grassroots: Kelly Griffith joined via telephone to give a wrap-up on the David Blake Clinic. The turnout was small but those who attended gave Kelly positive comments. We suggested that Kelly keep a record of the names of those who rode/attended so we can contact them again. CLD got at least two new members as a result of this clinic. The eastern part of Illinois has more active Pony Club members; we should promote our activities to them.

General Discussion: Tower Hill farm with 52 stalls available has agreed to host the Al Khamsa shows in 2011: June 11 and Sept. 17. Lorna Donahue has successfully booked the Illinois State Fairgrounds for a two-day show, the Carousel Connection, on May 7 & 8. With Classic I & II, the Springfield area now hosts six rated shows, more than enough to qualify for USDF Horse of the Year and All-Breeds competition. The CLD IceBreaker schooling show is April 16 and FireCracker schooling show is July 2.

Classic: John Simpson reported that we will not hire a third judge for Classic I and II until we see how many entries are received. The dates are August 27-28, 2011. One exhibitor from the 2010 Classic show still owes us money.

Charities: Alice reported that the CLD Board added $600 to the $1469 collected at the Awards Banquet for Bill Schomberg. Pinky has reported both Bill and Allison were overwhelmed when they learned of the contribution.

The next meeting will be held Saturday February 19 StarWest, 2:00 p.m.

The meeting was adjourned at 3:45 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,
Nancy Simpson, Secretary
