LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT

The purposes of CenterLine Dressage: "to promote interest in and further the knowledge of dressage; to conduct dressage events and activities; to provide educational forums" from the Bylaws of CenterLine Dressage, adopted August 1983.

Dear Member and Friend of CLD,

We have finally broken the 100 barrier in our membership. The current roster stands at 102. Welcome to our newest member, Kjersti Cory, who joined at IceBreaker. Treasurer Marie Meadows distributed Handbooks and membership cards at the show. She was able to give Kjersti the new CLD Handbook, one of 55 Handbooks that have been hand delivered to date. Our April Board meeting was the first to fall within my personal goal of 60 minute Board meetings; maximum time, 90 minutes.

For the April 12th meeting we had 11 Board Members present in the flesh and three calling into speaker phones. 10 of your 12 voting Board Members were present. Four of your 10 Co-ordinators (who are not also officers) attended, including our new Librarian, Brigitte Franzen. You are cordially invited to take part in the next Board Meeting on Sunday, May 23, 2 p.m. at StarWest.

Later that afternoon the Board will move north about a mile north to 925 S. Farmingdale Rd. to the CLD Barn Tour of Sangamon Equestrian Center at 4 p.m. New member Deanna Mayberry is the barn manager of the boarding facility that many of you may remember as Cobblestone. At 5 p.m. Dr. Deb Klamen will discuss emergency medicine for the rider, a timely topic with the accident of Courtney King-Dye on everyone's mind. Afterwards we will enjoy another good CLD Potluck. Ya'll come and learn.

Eighteen members of CLD enjoyed a tour of Heartland Equine Clinic on Sunday, April 19, in Curran. Drs. O'Keefe and Boyce gave good presentations on colic and equine nutrition to the group using AVA visuals. Thanks to Jo Keim and Hansen Engineering for use of their projector. All visitors coveted the soft flooring of the stall area and the soon to be completed indoor arena.

We received a minor miracle at IceBreaker on April 24. Despite a terrible forecast, we made it through with only a minor five-minute drizzle around 2 p.m. The show ran smoothly with lots of good volunteers helping Co-Managers Sue and Amanda Graham. Sue and Amanda want to thank those who helped: Amira Anthony, Ryan Ballinger, Susan Edwards, Deanna and Russ Mayberry, Marie Meadows, Julie Nichols, Anne Scrivner, and Judge Brenda Zeitler.

On April 12, I traveled to St. Louis to attend the Board meeting of SLADS. This is from their May newsletter: "Alice Martin, President of the Centerline Dressage Club spoke regarding the 2011 June show date conflict with the Al Khamsa Dressage show. Alice said it was nice to put a face behind the letter she wrote. She wanted to stress how important it is to think of neighboring clubs when planning the show season. She said clubs should exchange calendars. All in attendance discussed different show dates and the sharing of information on show dates. Leslie Burket, Liaison for the newly formed Community Involvement Committee, will be helping with this." (Leslie is also a member of CLD and is on our Inter-Club Liaison Committee.)

SLADS will be hosting the Region 4 Championships this year at their annual fall show. As those of you who volunteered to help with our 2001 hosting of the Region 2 Championships well know, it is a huge effort that requires much manpower. If you are able to serve their fall show and the Region 4 Championships, October 8-10, at the National Equestrian Center, Lake St. Louis, MO, please contact their Volunteer Coordinator, Sarah Szachnieski, at seszachnieski@gmail.com (John Simpson, our able manager of CLD Classic I and II, has already volunteered to be their Asst. Mgr, and I have volunteered for a yet unknown position.)

John Simpson also needs help for the Region XI Arabian Dressage Championships, June 2-6. Contact him at jsnrhorse@prodigy.net if you can help with the largest Arabian show in the country if you do not count the Arabian Sport Horse Nationals.

We still need someone to step up for the position of Volunteer Co-ordinator. This job helps event managers find their work force. It is a great job for a people person who enjoys catching up with other members. Happily, long-time CLD supporter, Brigitte Franzen has stepped up to fill the Librarian position. She is converting the old video library from VHS to DVD.

Plans are underway for some new videos to be added to the club's collection. If you have a recommendation for a desired title, please let Brigitte know: fairness@gmx.com

Two new Junior members of CLD (of nine juniors participating) enjoyed a perfect spring day and enthusiastic instruction from Melanie Michalak at Pratense Farms on April 10. Riders participated from Quincy to Carlinville. It was my privilege to spend a couple of hours there enjoying the potluck and interviewing a couple of riders who had already gone. Thanks to Paula Briney for hosting the clinic and to whoever made the terrific brownies.

Chrissie Jacobs was grateful Dexter behaved himself as she rode him for the first time in a new place. Chrissie thought Melanie was friendly and had a positive way of teaching. She thought the best hint she got was to keep Dexter going when he broke from canter. Jayme Geisler on Bandana V +// liked how Melanie related riding to her own interest: playing the drum. The most valuable thing she learned was how to slow the canter down.

Make plans now to attend the Col. Christian Carde Symposium on June 4-6. CenterLine has received a $1000 grant from The Dressage Foundation to help pay his airfare from Paris. His three-day clinic has been upgraded to Symposium status with a group meal and lecture planned each day. Auditors are welcome at $10 per day or $25 for all three days. Your catered meal will be $7 for each luncheon on Friday and on Sunday. I hope you will all attend the Banquet on Saturday night ($20) to help thank one of the world's top equestrians who has brought a little bit of the French school to Illinois. RSVP's are necessary for all meals. Two slots are left open for riders, contact alice.martin@mac.com

If you are interested in a CLD Club Tour of the Currier & Ives Exhibit at the Abraham Lincoln Museum on July 17th, please let Rita Bass know: hughb63@yahoo.com Full details later, but plan on a meal together afterwards at a downtown restaurant.

I am still just a phone call or an e-mail away.

P.S. I hope to see you on May 23rd: 2 p.m. Board Meeting at StarWest
4 p.m. Barn Tour of Sangamon Equestrian Center
5 p.m. Emergency medicine for the rider by Dr. Deb Klamen
CLD Potluck to follow

CLD SCHOLARSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

CLD offers financial assistance to members starting the pyramid of training as well as those nearing the top. We offer an annual assistance of $500 for members who are continuing their education beyond high school. This can help whether the recipient is attending college or technical training, whether straight out of high school or embarking upon a second career.

The clinic participation scholarship, new this year, is an annual award to pay the instruction fee for an entire CLD-sponsored clinic for one member. The Cheryl Finke Fund for Developing Riders offers a grant to those working at Fourth Level or above.

All recipients must have been a CLD member for at least two years and must report on their experience for The Reader. Full details can be found on the application forms, which are available on the CLD website.

MINUTES OF THE CLD BOARD OF DIRECTORS MEETING, APRIL 18, 2010

CenterLine Dressage Board Meeting
April 18, 2010
StarWest

The minutes were taken by John Simpson, due to the absence of the Secretary.

Members present:

Alice Martin, Martin Kuhn, Kate Fleming-Kuhn, Kelley Clausing, Brigitte Franzen, Janet Fitch, Paula Briney, Anne Scrivner, Leslie Burket, Kelly Griffith, Marilyn Weber, John Simpson. Marie Meadows, Elena Voigt, and Tracey Walker joined via telephone. Meeting was called to order at 2:05 pm by President Alice Martin.

Reports of Officers:

Newsletter Editor Kelley Clausing reported that we now have 67 members on Facebook including one from the country of Colombia.

Treasurer: Alice reported for Marie Meadows from the Treasurer's Report (see page 7). Then she asked Marie via the speaker phone for details on certain items: CLD has three tiered Certificates of Deposit at terms from three months to nine months.

In the future, the cost of ribbons will be accounted for by each show. IceBreaker has 60 rides so far, with $803.00 in receipts. The CLD-subsidized Michalak Clinic at Pratense Farms cost $596.00, including a $500.00 fee for the instructor. Income from the clinic was $270.00 for nine riders at $30 each.

Tax preparation fees are due.

The required audit of the CLD books by the accountant is to be done by June 30. Marie is looking into the cost of the audit.

Total cost of ribbons for 2010 was $571.23.

Membership: Alice reported for Co-ordinator Pinky Noll. CLD now has 99 members, 18 of which are juniors. The new membership cards will be distributed at IceBreaker. Those that remain will be mailed. Alice asked those present if they had reviewed the CLD Handbook prior to the meeting. Most had read the posted draft. Leslie Burket asked for an explanation of the purpose of the Handbook. Alice replied that it is a hands on copy of CLD information for each member, but it also makes clear the advantages of belonging to our GMO. Plus the Handbook includes the Bylaws and our Purpose.

There was discussion of putting phone numbers of all members into the Handbook. It was explained that phone numbers had been removed some years ago due to privacy concerns. The content was approved for publication and distribution at IceBreaker.

Webmaster: Martin reported that two newsletters had been mailed since our last Board meeting on March 13. We have 153 subscribers, 151 copies were delivered and 57% have been opened. Alice reported that we gained 5 new Junior Members from the Michalak Clinic. Martin reported that he had received a request to post a link on CLD's link page by a commercial site with no local affiliations. Martin's unwritten policy for posting links to the CLD links page has been that he would post a link to any horse related page that reciprocated by posting a link to CLD. In the case of a commercial site without any direct ties to the CLD community his policy has been to treat their link request as an advertisement request and forward them information about advertising on CLD's website and newsletter. Martin asked if there was any objections to continuing this policy as he had laid out. There was none.

Awards: Co-ordinator Marilyn Weber had no news to report.

Scholarship: Co-ordinator Janet Fitch reported she is reviewing guidelines for both the academic and the clinic/rider education scholarships. She will design posters to advertise the scholarships at IceBreaker. She suggested that we require requests for clinic/rider scholarships to be received at least 3 weeks before a clinic. Kate Fleming-Kuhn asked if scholarships would also be available for our subsidized clinics. The consensus was no. Janet will also prepare an article about the scholarships for The Reader.

Symposium: Co-ordinator Kate Fleming-Kuhn is continuing to work on finding someone for the November Awards program. She has contacted Cindy Ishoy, but has not received a reply yet. Scott Hassler has agreed to come in 2011. Amanda Johnson-Borchard is being considered for another Youth/Beginner clinic. Consensus of those present was that she would be a great clinician. Her fee is $600.00 per day, for this clinic she has volunteered to not charge the club for her milage. Tower Hill has offered to host. Kate requested discussion on CLD hosting a "L" [Learner Judge] program. She explained that the organizer of such a program cannot be a participant. The L program takes at least 5 different sessions and is a big commitment in time and effort to organize. However, it would be a significant promotion for CLD. We would need numerous horses and riders for demonstrations. The hosting facility requires a meeting facility for the seminar portion. The club will consider it. No motion was made and no vote was taken. Kate suggested several topics for local education programs: a show grooming clinic, a sport horse conformation judging clinic, a ground work seminar, and a show forms clinic. No dates were set.

Grassroots: Alice reported for for Co-ordinator Kelly Griffith who was not present. Kelly is working on arranging a junior rider clinic with David Blake in the Champaign area.

Show safety: Co-ordinator Anne Scrivner reported she is getting name tags for show staff and officials, including the EMT. She is arranging for signage and other required materials needed for approved horse shows.

IceBreaker: Alice reported for Manager Sue Graham, who was not present; the show schedule should be finished by April 19th or 20th.

Firecracker: Alice reported for Manager Jan Gurga, who was not present. Jan is securing volunteers.

Classic: Manager John Simpson reported that he has contacted the cleaning/janitorial contractors, but is not satisfied with their increased price. He will look into choosing a different vendor. A Volunteer Coordinator is still needed for Classic.

Inter-club Liaison: Co-ordinator Elena Voigt had nothing to report. (Elena is slowly recovering from a serious bout with pneumonia.) Committee member Leslie Burket said some groups contacted her about links and event notices among adjoining GMO's. We are contemplating sharing articles. etc.

Youth events: Committee member Marilyn Weber and Alice reported that the kids had a good time at the April clinic. They liked clinician Melanie Michalak, and were interested in doing another youth clinic. The potluck was a success. Paula reported that the Sangamon Valley Pony Club membership is down to only four members. She suggested that we consider doing something with them. The consensus was that CLD will try to bring them into the next youth clinic.

Charities: Co-ordinator Leslie Burket, nothing to report.

Sponsorships: Alice reported for Co-ordinator Nancy Simpson, who was not present. Tracy Walker is supposed to send Nancy the 2008 sponsorship forms within the week.

40th Anniversary Committee: Alice reported that co-founders, Elaine Gibala and Genelle Royer, have been contacted but have not yet responded.

Librarian: Brigitte Franzen reported that she is converting all club owned VHS-format videotapes to DVDs. She will work on preparing information to advise members, especially youth members, on what tapes are available and how to borrow them. (Brigitte has once again agreed to be the Corporate Sponsor for Classic and has received a Thank You letter from the Sponsorship Coordinator, Nancy Simpson.)

Other members present agreed to get their VHS tapes and DVDs to Brigitte. Martin volunteered to get a supply of blank DVD's and jewel cases for Brigitte to use. There was discussion on series of video recordings and which titles to consider for purchase. If we own part of a series, we may complete it.

New Business:

Kate Fleming-Kuhn discussed making the StarWest planned 6 p.m. potluck on Wednesday, April 28, and the following 7 p.m. lecture by Susanne Von Dietze, a CLD sponsored-event. Kelley Clausing furthered interest. StarWest is hosting her clinic on Wednesday and Thursday. A vote was not taken.

Alice reported that she attended a SLADS Board meeting on April 12 to discuss co-ordinating club activities. A problem has arisen because SLADS has changed their June 2011 show date. It now conflicts with the Al Khamsa June 2011 show in New Berlin. Al Khamsa is considering changing their date to the second weekend of June. If this is done, one advantage would be that the Al Khamsa show would no longer conflict with the Midwest Charity Horse Show.

Members present suggested we switch all email attachments to .pdf because people are having trouble opening some attachments sent in other formats.

Brigitte asked about Corporate Sponsor inserts for the Classic program. She will furnish 100 copies will be supplied to Show Secretary Jeanie Craver.

Martin moved and Marilyn seconded that the meeting adjourn at 3:30. Motion passed unanimously. Next meeting: Sunday May 23, 2:00 pm at StarWest.
