VOLUNTEERS NEEDED FOR CLD CLASSIC

August 22-23 again brings CLD's premier events, Classics I and II at the State Fairgrounds in Springfield. It should go without saying that producing events of this caliber and scale takes many manhours, 99% of which are volunteered.

If you can spare a couple of hours throughout the weekend, the jobs will be easily covered.

PLEASE, contact Mary Lou Flowers at: mary-lou-flowers@insightbb.com.

NBC TO AGAIN SERVE AS BROADCAST HOME FOR U.S. OLYMPIC HALL OF FAME PRESENTED BY ALLSTATE

The United States Olympic Committee announced NBC, broadcast home of the Olympic Games through 2012, will serve as the network host for the 2008 U.S. Olympic Hall of Fame Presented by Allstate. The made-for-television event will be recorded June 19 during an awards ceremony at the Harris Theater in Chicago, Ill., and will be aired Sunday, August 3, 2008 on NBC from 1:30pm to 3:00pm ET.

As part of the broadcast coverage, viewers will be treated to competition footage as well as insights from friends and competitors of the honored legends who will be inducted into the exclusive group of U.S. Olympic and Paralympic greats.

"Having the U.S. Olympic Hall of Fame broadcast again on NBC continues what we believe to be an excellent platform to recognize the great accomplishments of some of America's most recognized sports heroes," said USOC Chief Executive Officer Jim Scherr. "With the Beijing Olympic Games just days after the 2008 U.S. Olympic Hall of Fame broadcast airing, this summer's Olympic-oriented programming will be some of the most watched in history."

Longtime sports journalist Jim Lampley will again serve as the master of ceremonies for the induction. Lampley is a stalwart in the Olympic Movement's broadcast circles, and the Beijing Games will mark his 14th Olympic Games assignment.

The U.S. Olympic Hall of Fame was established in 1979 to celebrate the achievements of America's premier athletes in the modern Olympic Games. The first U.S. Olympic Hall of Fame class was inducted in 1983 during ceremonies in Chicago. That Charter Class, which included Olympic greats Jesse Owens, Jim Thorpe and Muhammad Ali, remains the largest group (20 individuals and one team) ever inducted. In 2004, after a 12-year hiatus, the U.S. Olympic Hall of Fame was revived through the support of Allstate Insurance Company as the presenting sponsor. This year, Allstate is again the presenting sponsor for the U.S. Olympic Hall of Fame, with second-year associate sponsors Kleenex and AT&T. With the addition of the Class of 2008, 213 athletes (including seven U.S. teams), two coaches, and 13 special contributors to the U.S. Olympic Movement have been enshrined in the U.S. Olympic Hall of Fame.
