

Basin Environmental

2320 41st Ave, NE
Calgary, AB T2E 6W8

www.basinenvironmental.ca

Suzanne Thompson, B.Sc., P. Biol., R.P. Bio.

Project Manager, Biologist - Basin Environmental Ltd.

Suzanne is a Biologist with over 8 years of experience primarily in aquatic environments with a focus in linear developments (e.g., pipelines, roads, and transmission lines) and mining (i.e., construction and operations) activities.

Throughout her career, Suzanne has extensive experience working in a field capacity and developing technical reports, environmental plans and permitting applications for a variety of regulatory agencies. Suzanne has working knowledge of provincial and federal legislation including, but not limited to: Federal Fisheries Act, Navigation Protection Act, National Energy Board Act, Canadian Environmental Assessment Act, Alberta's Water Act and Codes of Practice, British Columbia's Oil and Gas Activities Act, Environmental Assessment Act and Water Sustainability Act.

Suzanne has experience in the following: Qualified Aquatic Environmental Specialist (QAES) assessments; Water Quality Monitoring (WQM) and Fish Salvage plans; Applications and Notifications under the Alberta Water Act; Fisheries Act Applications and Self-Assessments; Environmental Protection and Mitigation Planning; Environmental Effects Monitoring (EEM); Fish Habitat Offsetting Planning and Effectiveness Monitoring; Environmental Baseline Field Work and Literature Reviews; Environmental Assessments (EA) and Environmental Impact Statements (EIAs), among others.

Affiliations:

- Alberta Society of Professional Biologists (ASPB) - Professional Biologist (P. Biol.)
- British Columbia College of Applied Biology (CAB) – Registered Professional Biologist (R.P. Bio.).

Suzanne Thompson

587-437-7807

suzannethompson@gmail.com