

Basin Environmental

115 Nottingham Road
Sherwood Park, AB, T8A 5M3

www.basinenvironmental.ca

Courtney Kelly, B.Sc., P.Biol.

Wetland Specialist, Project Manager - Basin Environmental Ltd.

Courtney Kelly has an Honours Biology Degree from Western University and an Ecosystem Management Technology Diploma from Sir Sandford Fleming College.

Courtney has over 6 years of experience, with a diverse skill set which includes: ecosite classification, wetland assessments, vegetation surveys, construction monitoring, water quality monitoring, biodiversity surveys, wildlife identification, wildlife monitoring, environmental spill response, technical report writing, permitting for a variety of regulatory agencies and project management. In the past two years, Courtney has primarily focused on wetland biology; providing regulatory support and guidance.

Courtney's current interests and responsibilities with Basin Environmental are focused on wetland ecology. These duties include but are not limited to: environmental assessment (EA) reports, biophysical impact assessment (BIA) reports, wetland impact assessment (WIA) reports, wetland permanence assessments, wetland delineation, ABWRET.

Affiliations:

- Alberta Society of Professional Biologists (ASPB) - Professional
- Biologist (P. Biol.)s.

Courtney Kelly

403.617.9196

ckcourtneykelly8@gmail.com