

Park Design & Construction Documents

Client: Indy Parks

Project Size: 2,400 LF of trail

Marott Park ~ Indianapolis, Indiana

- City park and Nature Preserve
- Mapped, inventoried and evaluated entire trail system; Designed trail rehabilitation program to address erosion problems.
- Designed accessible trails with a boardwalk entrance, allowing wheelchair users access to nature preserve and creek.
- Design features a large, natural stone staircase to resolve the park's largest erosion issue
- Fiber coir logs used for stabilization of steep slopes
- Wooden overlook structure provides seating and a platform for viewing the creek

Typical Trail Corridor Treatment

Stone Steps