

Project Size: 0.75 acres

Client wished to expand and enhance the outdoor dining and entertaining.

The program incorporated different materials:

- Masonry
- Existing carved limestone water feature
- Corinthian capital from a local historic building

The proposed terrace included:

- Brazilian hardwood deck with removable panels
- Curvilinear masonry terrace on two levels
- Hand tooled limestone fountain resting within a landscape island
- Pergola design responds to the great room window

