

This year marks our 31st Service to the Arts Celebration!
Each year, Medina County Arts Council Trustees honor well respected and deserving individuals and organizations in our community for their passion, efforts and commitment to the Arts in Medina County.

2018 Service to the Arts Awards Recipients:

INDIVIDUAL AWARD: SHARON BORROR
Deeply involved in the arts in Medina County, Sharon teaches art for the Medina JDC, and is a founding member of the Medina County Art League's "Aquarius" members' exhibit. She also served as Art League Secretary and President, and since 1990 has been an annual participant of Medina's "Art in the Park".

INDIVIDUAL AWARD: GEORGE PARMALEE,
For more than 50 years, George has volunteered his time and artistic talents to various organizations throughout Medina County. Also known for the many parade floats he created over the years, George often visits schools, libraries, and nursing homes demonstrating his caricature drawing skills.

ORGANIZATION AWARD: THE MEDINA COUNTY DISTRICT LIBRARY has long been committed to celebrating the arts and making them a part of events through collaborations and partnerships. The library takes pride in serving the community and providing opportunities to incorporate new and innovative ways to enhance lives through the arts.

Join us for a delightful summer evening of wine, delicious hors d'oeuvres from Medina restaurants, demonstrations from local artists and presentation of the Service to the Arts Awards.

A highlight of the evening will be a Live Auction of exceptional items like

- A week's stay at a condo in Florida
- Golf package for four with dinner at Weymouth Country Club
- And more!

Chinese Raffle
There will be a variety of fantastic items! Jewelry, Art, Wine Baskets, Workshops, Gift Cards, Golf Packages and much more.

All money raised benefits the arts of Medina County.

For updates on activities for the evening, please visit our Facebook page or website.
