WEDNESDAYS with AMY

DRAMA BASICS 3.5-5 years Wednesdays 5:30-6:15 pm

An excellent opportunity for your young child to join others to explore and experience their natural joy of using creativity, imagination and their bodies to explore the world around them. Each week we cover one or more letters of the alphabet and learn our drama-related words all year long. Various forms of stories, folk tales, poems, songs, and plays will be explored through music, movement, props and imagination. At the end of the year each student receives their own drama book. A low key, low cost presentation for participants will be held in Mid May.

(Enrol via registration, no audition or pre-requisite level)

Rehearsals: Wednesdays @ St. Andrew's Church (Queen/Weber).

Sept 2016-May 2017

DRAMATIC FOUNDATIONS & FUN! Saturdays for 6-10 years 10:30-11:15 am

Want to act but don't know where to start? Want to touch up on some skills? This fun class will help you build your confidence, insight and give you a strong foundation in acting. In this course actors we will fully explore a variety of theatrical elements, including exploring how feelings create an emotional connection in acting (how you feel when you are happy, sad, mad) and teach participants this way is a safe way to explore them and apply them to performing various characters. We'll delve into a variety of scene studies and learn to answer those 3 very important questions. Who am I? Where am I? What am I doing? Participants will be exploring improv, drama games and working towards memorizing their script work. This program will conclude with an informal parents day presentation during the last 10 minutes of class on the last day of each term.

(Enrol via registration, no audition or pre-requisite level)

Rehearsals: Saturdays @ Emmanuel Day Care (65 Noecker St)

DRAMATIC ELEMENTS & FUN! Saturdays for 11-14 years 11:15 am - 12 pm

New to theatre training or just want to do some extra skill building? Join Tricia in this fun program that will help you grow your confidence, insight and start or build on foundations previously explored through performance art. We'll be learning about accessing emotions for acting, where they lie in your body, exploring various characters that experience a variety of emotions & choices and how it can help you play those roles. Through scene studies or monologues we'll experiment with choices that support the story but are of interest to the actor reviewing foundations as needed. Participants will be exploring improv, drama games and working towards memorizing their script work. This program will conclude with an informal parents day presentation during the last 10 minutes of class on the last day of each term.
