The Learning Studio’s Gallery of Courses

The Alliance Center for Independence (ACI) has designed the following courses with the goal of teaching employment readiness and independent living skills to individuals who receive services through the NJ Division of Developmental Disabilities (DDD). The nature of these courses allow individuals to develop friendships and peer connections amongst each other while learning new skills. Courses can be modified to meet the individual’s needs and interests.

The Learning Studio programs are available by referral made through your DDD support coordinator. Contact Luke Koppisch, ACI Deputy Director, at 732-738-4388 or lkoppisch@adacil.org for more information or visit our website adacil.org.

Due to COVID-19, all courses are currently being provided remotely through Zoom unless otherwise noted.
Who We Are

ACI is a Center for Independent Living (CIL) assisting individuals with all disabilities in Middlesex, Somerset, and Union Counties. Established in 1986, ACI is grass roots 501 (C)(3) organization based in Edison, NJ. We are one of eleven CILs in NJ. We provide five core services mandated by the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA). These are: Information and Referral, Advocacy, Independent Living Skills, Peer Support, and Transition services.

As a DDD vendor, ACI provides Pre-Vocational training, Career Planning, Community Based Services, Community Inclusion, and Supported Employment. Referrals to these programs are made through support coordinators. ACI has over 20 years experience in teaching these courses. (Note: Because of COVID-19 we are unable to provide Supported Employment at this time).
All services are offered in Middlesex, Somerset, and Union counties unless otherwise noted.
