He said "I'll love you till I die", | she told him "You'll forget in

| 4 | | | 5 | | |

time" | As the years went slowly | by, | she still preyed upon his

| 1 | | 5 || | |

mind | He kept her picture on his

|| 1 | | | 4 | | |

wall, | went half-crazy now and then | He still loved her through it

| 5 | | | 1 | | 5 || | |

all, | hoping she'd come back again | Kept some letters by his

|| 1 | | | 4 | | |

bed | dated nineteen sixty-two | He had underlined in

| 5 | | | 1 | | 5 || | |

red | every single "I love you" | I went to see him just to-

|| 1 | | | 4 | | |

day, | oh but I didn't see no tears | All dressed up to go away, | first time I'd seen him smile in years | He stopped loving her to-

| 5 | | | 1 | | 5 || | |
