

Dylan Palmer

2550 30th Ave, San Francisco CA, 94116

(925) 354-0224

Email - dylanpalmerart@gmail.com

Website – dylanpalmerart.com

Work Experience:

Freelance Illustrator

2008 – Present

- Worked directly with Art Directors to provide the most satisfying piece possible
- Used multitude of styles and materials, including digital and traditional
- Worked with deadlines and developed effective time management skills
- Clients include: Fantasy Flight Games, East Bay Goodwill, Social Interventions, Ultrasylvania, Storm Rascal Productions and others

2D Artist

Crowdstar, Burlingame, CA

April 2016 – Present

- Created garments and other art assets to be used in the top grossing game Covet Fashion
- Reviewed garments from outsourcing team using red lines and paintovers to ensure that quality standards were being met
- Worked closely with supervisor and other artists to maintain a rigorous pipeline of content

Art Director

Jamwix LLC, San Francisco, CA

June 2013 – January 2016

- Set the visual style for several projects most notably: Cinemagic and Chimera VR
- Created illustrations, art assets, icons, logos, user interface, and promotional materials
- Managed freelancers and assisted in both hiring and finding talent
- Maintained visual style among freelancers with frequent feedback and weekly meetings

Concept Artist

Salvage (Game), San Francisco, CA

May 2012 – December 2012

- Designed characters, environments and props to be used in the final game
- Attended weekly meetings for discussions on final game mechanics and general design ideas
- Met strict weekly deadlines

Education:

Academy of Art University, San Francisco, California

- Illustration, February 2010 – June 2013

Humboldt State University, Arcata, California

- Two Semesters, August 2008 – June 2009

Chico State, Chico, California

- Two Semesters, August 2007 – June 2008

Relevant Skills:

- Proficient with Adobe CC: Photoshop, Illustrator, In Design, Flash, Corel Painter and Microsoft Office
- Organized, fast learning and detail oriented
- Excellent communication skills
- Affable, passionate and hard working