

February Fitness Challenge

2014 Results Booklet

To keep the body in good health is a duty... otherwise we shall not be able to keep our mind strong and clear." ~ Buddha

Great work to all those who swam in the 2014 February Fitness Challenge! Your body thanks you.

Thanks from your hosts, The Tualatin Hills Barracudas

A word from the February Fitness Coordinator:

Hello from your new February Fitness Coordinator. As many of you may have noticed or recall, our fabulous previous coordinator, Dave Radcliff, has decided to “hop off this lily pad” and move on. It is with pleasure that I accept this honor to be your new “Boss Frog.” My name is Jenn Pidkowicz, and I swim for the Tualatin Hills Barracudas. I have corresponded with some of you already and those that I have not yet talked with, I look forward to it. I am so excited to take on this challenge. However, I am no pro at this yet. I want to thank you all for your patience with me throughout this learning process.

I am so proud to say that I am a swimmer. There is something different about swimmers. People are in awe of us and what we can do. I have a friend whose jaw drops every time I tell her that I was up swimming at 5:15 AM before going to work. Whether you are a long-time swimmer, novice, or new to the sport; whether you belong to a team or swim on your own; and whether you swim every day or only a few times a month, each one of you is truly amazing for your dedication to your health and overall well-being.

On that note, I am also amazed by the perseverance you all have shown through this FFC. After reading notes on entry forms and from personal experience, it appears that the snow storms were barriers to getting to the pool, but you did not let it get in the way of your swimming goals.

Keep it up. Even though this challenge is for the month of February, I encourage you all to continue swimming throughout the entire year and continue your commitment to fitness.

I look forward to coordinating many more coming challenges, hopefully with less “waves in the water.”

Thank you! Jenn Pidkowicz

And a round of applause for:

My husband for helping me with this endeavor. He had no idea that when I volunteered, he too was being volunteered.

Dave Radcliff and Jon Schieltz for passing the torch and helping me through this first year. As well as a thank you to both of them for their amazing work in previous February Fitness Challenges.

To our vendors

Katy Krup at Elemental Graphics for her fabulous design and all your t-shirt orders

JD Pence, for the swim caps

Brent Washburne, our eregister online registration system and for him being patient with all my question asking.

All the Tualatin Hills Barracudas for their support

Lynn Kubasek for breaking another record as she aged up to the 55-59 group. Lynn swam 460,100 yards this year, breaking the withstanding record.

February Fitness Fate

Do you believe in fate? Perhaps after hearing this story, you will...

As creator and coordinator of the 1993 February Fitness Challenge (a Masters Swimming event), I was responsible for receiving, checking, and processing all postal entries for the event. Dozens of forms filled my mailbox in the days of early March, and it was quite a chore to review each individual entry. Occasionally, an entry form would arrive incomplete or illegible, and I would contact the entrant via phone or mail to verify the information.

On one particular day, I received an entry from someone named Muriel K. Downs of Brooklyn, New York. The handwriting was a bit scribbly and her declared age could have passed for 24 or 74. Deciding that I'd better check it out, I called her and realized by her phone message that she was closer to 24. That same evening, I inexplicably sat down and wrote Muriel a three-page letter. The following day, Muriel called and left a message on my answering machine. I didn't hear from her for the next ten days, and actually had put it behind me figuring she wasn't interested in corresponding.

Then one Saturday afternoon after returning from coaching a swim practice, I received a call from Muriel who said she had been on vacation for ten days and was overjoyed to receive the letter. Amazingly, we talked for two and one-half hours. She explained the messy penmanship - she filled out her entry form on the subway into work. We let a few days go by, wrote each other a letter or two, and talked several days later - for five hours!

Scott and Muriel celebrating their 20th wedding anniversary with their children

As we developed a deep fondness for one another, we began to have shared thoughts of a rich and lasting relationship, even though we had never seen one another. Our relationship was building rapidly on feelings in our hearts rather than on appearances. We discussed relocating so we could live together, marry and have children. We even discussed specific wedding dates and plans and whether she would take my last name. We dreamed about what life would be like shared with one another ... and we still had not actually met.

Within a couple weeks, we traded pictures of ourselves and both of us were very pleased with the appearances. We scheduled a May 6 meeting for Baton Rouge, which seemed altogether too far away. But patient we would be.

On Friday, April 23, I decided enough was enough. Spending three to five hours per day on the phone was getting a bit old, and we longed to actually be together. On the spur of the moment, I caught a flight to New York for a one-day trip and, at last, we were together.

The ensuing twenty-four hours was the greatest day of my life. Two soulmates had rediscovered one another. Our compatibility was perfect; it was truly a "match made in heaven." Tears flowed often and easily.

Shortly thereafter, Muriel resigned from her job and moved to Baton Rouge in early June so that we could begin our life together. We married the following January at a beautiful Southern plantation-style home.

Truly, swimming has brought many gifts my way. There have been practices and meets, socializing and learning, and the opportunity to assist others. But no gift has been greater than meeting and getting to know my best friend and my lifetime companion. Swimming has brought us together, and love will keep us together.

Sincerely,
Scott Rabalais

Words from our swimmers:

"I felt compelled to write to you after completing the February 2014 Fitness Challenge. I have been out of swimming for a couple of years due to medical issues and losing my workout partner (she moved). This year I really needed to get back in shape for my FAA flight physical, my 40th high school class reunion, and my own self-respect. Thank you for this fantastic, demanding, but do-able challenge. I swam 27 days and got to like working out again. The FFC is long enough and hard enough and takes just enough discipline without being a pain in the butt. My pecs and shoulders and triceps and quads and my wife, yes, definitely my wife, thank you for your steadfast dedication to this worthwhile event. My cardiologist, Weight Watchers leader, kids, and 100% ME thank you for all that you do every year. Thanks again and again." –WW

"Having been a participant in the Feb Fitness Challenge for many years, I thought to again offer my view of this excellent program. A) Swimming is the best health program ever, especially if it is in a daily agenda; B) I personally admire your countless endeavors to undertake this fitness challenge during the coldest months of the year. It takes courage to get up, proceed to the pool and do laps on everyday (I lived in Long Island, NY for 3 years and never enjoyed the winter months); C) In our country, it is summer in February and I'm happy to commence swimming at 4 AM each morning in a swimming pool at my backyard. ...In any event, congratulations to your group for again staging this important challenge." –Ian Redpath, AUS

"Aloha and Mahalo. Thank you for once again sponsoring this challenge! Maui County UpCountry Pool really "enjoyed" it."

"Thank you for having the dedication to continue to put on the FFC. It is always a challenge to accomplish the 28 days. In Maine, they are prepared for snow (where I lived the past 9 years). A few weeks ago, here in South Carolina, it snowed for 3 days, and then the melting froze. They are totally unequipped to handle this, so they closed the schools. My regular pool closed with the schools, so I had to hope the police wouldn't pull me over for venturing out to Furman University to do my swims (the Governor had declared a state of emergency, telling everyone to stay home). Our home is the pool!! The All-New England SCY championship is coming up later this month [March] and the FFC always gets me in shape to do it with a couple of weeks to taper and let my bad rotator cuff recover a little." –Kristi Panayotoff

DJ Murray swam until she suffered a broken arm.

Elfie Stevenin, our eldest swimmer (92), wrote, "I still tried even though I am recovering from a broken hip."

"I thought I'd share with you the trials and tribulations in meeting my February fitness Challenge goal of 100,000 yards. By February 26, I had completed 94,150 yards. With two days and two workouts to go, I could easily complete the additional 5,850 yards with over 1,000 yards to spare. On the 27th I went to my usual evening workout, but after only 1,150 yards, the power went out, and everybody had to leave the pool. That left me with one day to swim 4,700 yards. On the morning of the 28th we had a thunder storm, rare for Southern California. By 9:30 or 10:00 it appeared to be over, so I went to the pool that opens at 11:00, but they were concerned that there would be more lightning. so they did not open the pool. That left me with one last hope, the Swim and Racquet Club that was normally open from 5:30 to 7:00 p.m. I arrived there about 5:15, and the pool opened at 5:30, as scheduled. I knew I couldn't swim 4,700 yards in 90 minutes unless I wore my fins for most of it, so that's what I did, finishing at about 6:59 p.m.! That was close! Then, Friday night, March 7th, I realized you needed my entry by March 10, so I completed it and brought it to the Post Office that night. I certainly hope you receive it on time!" – Lois Goodman

Thanks for all the great comments!

Great Job to all of you. It was definitely tough this year to get in as many days as possible for those of you that were pummeled by snow storms, but you definitely perservered! Something to definitely be proud of!

Let's hop a few lily pads back in time. Men and women first place totals in the early years.
