

NICK BLACK BIO

Nick Black is quickly becoming one of the most recognizable names in the pop/soul music scene. His energetic live show experience features smooth soul vocals, soaring falsetto, and blazing guitar. Black and his band are bringing together the sounds of old and new, creating something completely unique and entirely original. Nick's newest album SUMMER & SPRING was released August of 2017. Produced by Black and Memphis producer James Bennett, and mastered by Grammy-winning engineer Brad Blackwood, SUMMER & SPRING fuses classic Memphis R&B with the spirit of new soul coming out of the Bluff City. Featuring two video singles, the summer jam "Joy to the Girl" and the equally colorful title track "Summer + Spring", this new album pushes Nick's soul roots to their max.

Nick released his last album DEEP BLUE in 2015 to critical acclaim, featuring two music videos for the tracks "Ocean" and "Worst You Can Do". His work on the album bridged the gap between his soul music roots and his songwriting, allowing Black to come into his own as an artist. Following the release of DEEP BLUE, Nick began touring nationally throughout the Midsouth and east coast of the US, backed up by a group of top tier Memphis musicians.

He has been featured on "Muscle Shoals to Music Row", a concert series filmed at legendary Fame Recording Studios in Muscle Shoals, as well as on Americana and Roots channel DittyTV as one of their featured artists.

Black won the 2015 Juneteenth awards for "Album of the Year" and "Band of the Year", The Pioneer Award for "Most Promising Male Entertainer". He also won the 2016 Blues Music Award for "Band of the Year" for his work with award-winning blues and boogie-woogie band Victor Wainwright & The WildRoots.

Nick is now touring nationally in support of SUMMER & SPRING.
