

“TWO HOOS” CAN BE BETTER THAN ONE!

Wednesday, March 21st, 2.15 p.m. to 4.15pm
Commonwealth Room at Newcomb Hall.

A special session of the Huskey Research exhibition, featuring some of the great projects that UVa graduate and undergraduate students are working on together:

A Genetically Informed Study of Disordered Eating Pathology in Adolescent Twins

Christopher Beam and Lauren Cohen (Graduate School & College of Arts & Sciences)

-----

Portable and Connected Devices Increase Access to Health Information in Remote Global Settings

Neil Peterson (Graduate School of Arts and Sciences) and Eliza Peak (Nursing)

-----

Delivery of S1P-Receptor Targeted Drugs for Type-1 Diabetes Treatment

Daniel Bowers and Danqing Zhu (Engineering)

-----

Mapping neural cell death and removal in a mouse model of fetal alcohol syndrome

Jennifer Sokolowski (Medicine) and Samantha Hale (College of Arts & Sciences)

-----

Discovery and Characterization of Stellar Clusters in the Outer Milky Way

Gail Zasowski and Karen Hamm (Graduate School & College of Arts & Sciences)

-----

CO<sub>2</sub> wetting on representative minerals and its implications for geologic carbon sequestration

Shibo Wang and Ian Edwards (Engineering)

-----

Come learn about their work and about opportunities to participate in advanced research yourself!

SPONSORED BY THE CENTER FOR UNDERGRADUATE EXCELLENCE AND THE GRADUATE SCHOOL OF ARTS AND SCIENCES COUNCIL.