HAYDEN JONES - is a unique troubadour beyond his years. Channeling eras long before him while simultaneously bringing something fresh and unique. He looks young but does not sound it. He is like a time traveling minstrel or a ghost of the past, bringing us the music we have almost forgotten and sparking it with brand new love."

BRIANA ADAMS WITH MARLEY VASEK is not exactly a rebel, but with her musical mashup of Waylon Sknyrd and Janis Joplin, you could be forgiven for thinking she is. In reality, Texas singer/songwriter Briana Adams is a sweet-natured Southern crooner that really just wants to share her music with the world. Her songs are a honky tonk acid trip of classic dancehall and 70's outlaw country rolled into a tight-knit package, all headlined by a big Texas voice and an unmistakable style that's all her own. And if you catch a little twist of blues and rock'n' roll in the vocal, that's not by accident. Growing up in a small Texas town like Winchester, that's the way country music is done.

Marley Vasek at the age of three, Marley discovered her love for Country Music. Renowned artists like Johnny Cash, Tanya Tucker and Maddie & Tae served as her first inspiration. Soon, she became captivated by the soulful sounds of local musicians like Briana Adams, Morgan Ashley and Carrie Marie. These talented Texas musicians not only gave her the opportunity to perform "on stage" but, in 2019 included her in a music video showcasing the prodigious talent of singer song-writer Carrie Marie (When God Started Missing You). Now, at the age of 6, Marley has a heart that is filled with a passion for both classic and contemporary Country Music; proof again that good music knows no age and has no boundaries. While she loves to meet new performers, she thrives in the presence of local artist Briana Adams. Affectionately known as her sidekick, Marley is not only proud of this nickname but is honored by the relationship she shares with Briana Adams and she feels privileged to continue her musical journey as she shares the stage with Briana at the Opry

KEITH HICKLE has been a musician since the start of this decade. After entering the Fayette county fair talent contest in 2010, he pursued his newly found talent all over Texas. Since then he has played nearly 2000 shows. He has traveled and played shows in Colorado , Oklahoma, New Mexico, Louisiana, and of course all over the great state of Texas. He has won the Fayette County Record Readers digest " best musician in Fayette County " in 2012, 2013, 2016, 2018 and was recently nominated. Earlier this year, Keith performed at the 2019 Houston Live Stock Show and Rodeo Wine Garden stage and is booked again for the 2020 season.
