VINTAGE AND COOL

"Peter Gunn" - the classic TV detective series (1958-61) - is probably best remembered today for Henry Mancini's trend-setting jazz score inspired by the West Coast Cool School. In "Music for Peter Gunn," Grammy-nominated conductor Steven Richman and the sensational Harmonie Ensemble/New York, with ace old-school improvisers Lew Soloff (trumpet) and Lew Tabackin (sax), place their own stamp on Mancini's iconic orchestrations.

"Music for Peter Gunn" follows in the footsteps of Richman and Harmonie Ensemble's previous releases "Gershwin by Grofé" (2010) - which landed on the Billboard charts in the top ten - and "Ellington/Tchaikovsky Nutcracker Suite" (2013), of which Downbeat noted that, "Richman elicits enthralling music from the large ensemble."

Recorded June 2012. DiMenna Center for Classical Music, New York City
Sessions producers: Adam Abeshouse and Steven Richman
Recording and Mastering Engineer: Adam Abeshouse
Assistant Engineer: Andy Ryder
