Experience a traditional tea on the lush grounds of the historic Avery House in downtown Fort Collins. Sip tea and indulge in sweet and savory bites while enjoying live harp music and time to chat with friends, bid on tea-themed items in a silent auction, and tour the Avery House's current exhibit highlighting 100 years of fashion.

Tickets are $25 and are available online at poudrelandmarks.org, or purchase in Fort Collins at the Avery House (Saturdays and Sundays, 1–4 p.m.), Downtown Ace Hardware, The Cupboard, or The Perennial Gardener.

Royal-Tea tables are available for $5/person extra and include a special tea blend, preferential seating, a small potted plant to take home, and a mini loaf of sweet bread to take home.

Delicious tea and food are being provided by Happy Lucky's Teahouse of Fort Collins and Mountain Top Confections of Conifer. The menu includes tea; scones along with cream, lemon curd, and strawberry preserves; several varieties of traditional tea sandwiches; and desserts.

The Avery House's current exhibit, The Margaret Brown Collection, is a remarkable assemblage of a century of fine womenswear from mid-1800s to mid-1900s, and admission is included with tea ticket.

Proceeds from ticket sales and the silent auction go toward the nonprofit Poudre Landmarks Foundation's mission to preserve, restore, protect, and interpret the architectural and cultural heritage of the Fort Collins area.
