Subject: Time Travelers Ball Happens April 1
Date: Saturday, April 1, 2017 | 7–10 p.m. (doors open at 6:30)
Location: Rio Grande Agave Room, 143 W Mountain Ave, Fort Collins, CO 80524
Cost: $40 per ticket or 2 for $75

Travel through time with Poudre Landmarks Foundation at the Time Travelers Ball. The ball welcomes guests from across time on April 1 in the Rio Grande Agave Room, 143 W Mountain Ave, Fort Collins, 7–10 p.m. Tickets are $40 each or two for $75. (After March 22, price increases to $50 per ticket.) Costume attire is optional.

The Time Travelers Ball costume ball is a mixture of Victorian, Steampunk, Sci-Fi, or whatever you can imagine! The event ignites imaginations and provides a unique experience for history and time-travel enthusiasts. Don a hat and costume from your favorite time, theme, or April Fools' joke and join the fun!

Live band Weekend Weather will entertain guests. Picture an evening with

- guests dressed in costumes from the past to the future—whatever your imagination can conjure
- dancing to live music spanning the decades
- scrumptious food, drink, and cash bar
- history displays and tables set with vintage memorabilia
- a fashion exhibit featuring vintage attire
- popular local actor Lenny Scovel as Master of Ceremonies
- a Doctor Who TARDIS time machine and photo booth
- costume contests
- silent auction

Guests can “pay to vote” for costume contests and can bid on history-related items and activities.

Buy tickets online at poudrelandmarks.org, or call the PLF office at (970) 221-0533 to order tickets. Proceeds from this event go toward the nonprofit Poudre Landmarks Foundation's mission to preserve, restore, protect, and interpret the architectural and cultural heritage of the Fort Collins area.
