

BRYARLY

Short Version

Bryarly is an indie folk-like artist from Atlanta. Her music centers on the lyrics and melody, backed by hip-hop beats and upbeat keys. Similar artists include Regina Spektor, Kate Nash, and She & Him. Her self-titled first album was produced by Kush Mody & recorded by Omar Yakar at Boulevard Recording.

Long Version

Bryarly is an indie folk-like artist from Atlanta, GA. She was influenced from an early age by the great folk singers of the 60s and 70s, including Simon & Garfunkel, Donovan, and Peter, Paul and Mary. Later on, hip-hop added its style to her music, resulting in lyric driven songs with resonant beats and upbeat keys. Her first album is an amalgamation of musical styles, threaded together with her clear, engaging voice and introspective lyrics. An independent artist, her YouTube channel boasts over 129,000 subscribers and millions of views. The album was produced by Kush Mody and recorded by Omar Yakar at Boulevard Recording. Similar artists include Regina Spektor, Kate Nash, and She & Him.
