

Beautiful Again

D - G
E7 - G - D

Death is swallowed up in victory
It has no sting, no power over me
Cause you steal the night away
You take my fear and shame

Hope was wounded, hanging on a tree
But hope is better placed in things unseen
Cause the stone was rolled away
And they found an empty grave

D - G - E7 - G

He lives that death may die
There's victory in Jesus Christ
Thanks be to God on high
Who gave his son to bring us life

E7 - G - D - A

You take my pain
The ashes of my life and make them beautiful again
You shake the sky
With the power of your love that even death cannot destroy
