Information Sharing Centres

1. Background:

Information sharing or a lack thereof was initially identified as a major concern for refugees during repatriation workshops held by refugee communities in 2012. Refugees have no easy access to formal channels through which relevant information can be requested, accessed, disseminated or made credible. Since these initial meetings, information sharing is continually expressed as a key concern by all actors and has further been defined and specified as to what information people need – for refugees and camp leadership, as well as the humanitarian community - in supporting refugee preparedness for durable solutions.

UNHCR and CCSDPT formed the Information Sharing Task Force (ISTF) in response to the concerns raised. The ISTF now includes representatives from refugee committees and CBO and acts as an advisory support function. The ISTF came together in order to address the concerns voiced by the refugee community, by collating the feedback and commencing the process of the development of a strategy and tools for information sharing. Throughout the consultation process in all camps a model has been further developing about information sharing. These terms of reference cover the information sharing centres and sharing mechanisms in camp.

2. Purpose:

2.1 To empower refugees with information that will help them feel stable, secure and decrease stress and anxiety.

2.2 To provide refugees with timely, credible and relevant information in order for them to make an informed decision about their future.

2.3 To provide a platform for all stakeholders to not only access but also contribute to the collation and dissemination of timely, credible and relevant information.

2.4 To provide refugees with an opportunity to enquire about the credibility of information they may have heard in their community.

2.5 To provide the above services to all refugees regardless of age, gender, ability, religion and / or ethnicity.

2.6 To provide an opportunity for the refugee community and CBOs to engage through development, implementation and management of the information sharing centres and mechanisms. Community engagement provides an opportunity to empower the refugee community and aids accountability and transparency.

2.7 Through information sharing and improved communication there will be an improvement in coordination and the use of human and financial resources.

2.8 To provide an example of a model of preparedness in a protracted environment for future accessibility.

2.9 The purpose is not about promoting return but rather providing information about potential return and information related to other durable solutions.
