

Who Matters?

An Intergenerational Photo and Story Project

Brought to you by: Madison Public Library & Madison Senior Center

Be Part of our first ever joint intergenerational photo exhibit and have your photo taken by Jennifer Bastian, Madison Public Library's Bubbler Artist-in-Residence. Include at least one person age 55+ with anyone of other generations, related or not. Be creative. Bring a group. Play it silly or serious!

Saturday, August 26: 10:00am - 2:00pm

Thursday, September 28: 4:00pm - 8:00pm

Central Library - Third Floor

Local author Pam Phillips Olson will be available to capture your stories if you'd like to have that included with your photo.

The photos and stories will be displayed throughout the month of December 2017 at the Central Library and the Madison Senior Center, with a welcome reception to kick it off. Date, time, and location(s) to be announced.

Please call the Senior Center at 266-6581 to sign up for a photo session. Walk-ins are welcome too, but those with a reservation are guaranteed submission.
