FYI ACCOMPLISHMENTS AT A GLANCE

- Won two NY State Department of Education 21st Century Community Learning Center grants increasing the reach of our programs to 1400 children, effective September 2017.

- Facilitated new middle school college access programs serving 300 seventh grade students at three public schools with a focus on planning, thinking about, and visiting colleges.

- Welcomed five new members to the FYI Board of Directors from organizations such as Google and BlackRock.

- Equipped all FYI Staff to implement values-based discipline and culture building practices, agency-wide.

- Launched onsite services at FYI’s newest and fourth site, located at Gregorio Luperon High School. Provided advisory and counseling services to 50 students, paving the way to full scale services for its 520 immigrant students starting in September 2017.
