

Common Ground is a web application made for the community by the NSW Government. It provides easy access to maps of mining and production activities across the State and helps explain the role of community in the decision making process for any potential project.

An interactive version of this poster, definitions for all abbreviations, maps, titles types, and more useful information can be found at www.commonground.nsw.gov.au

Version 1.0
last updated 05.09.2014