SDCYB HAS BEEN TRAINING AND INSPIRING GENERATIONS OF BALLET DANCERS IN BALBOA PARK FOR OVER THREE QUARTERS OF A CENTURY!

WHAT MAKES SDCYB UNIQUE
- Our youth-centered programs allow us to focus solely on the development of young, aspiring dancers.
- Our historic location in the cultural heart of Balboa Park gives our students the opportunity to immerse themselves in a creative, artistic environment.
- Our carefully-selected, diverse faculty have studied and performed with renowned programs locally, nationally, and internationally.
- Our dancers learn in a positive, encouraging environment where accessibility is balanced with excellence, and diversity is celebrated.

FACILITIES
- All programs take place in our beautiful Casa del Prado studios in the cultural heart of Balboa Park. Our spacious, historic studios provide the perfect backdrop for inspired learning.

ENROLLMENT
- Payment is required to reserve a place in the program. All students must fill out our Online Registration Form and sign SDCYB's Parent Student Handbook before enrolling.
- Please call or stop by our office to enroll (please note that new students must set up a placement class prior to enrolling).
- Limited financial aid is available for students who qualify.
Jennifer is the founder of Wingrove Studios Photography, and specializes in Dance performances, as she herself became a professional aerialist upon retiring from her ballet career. Jennifer has also performed the role of Ariel in the Commonwealth Shakespeare Company’s production of “The Tempest.” Lam continues to bring authenticity and passion to his work as a creative director, dancer, choreographer, actor, and arts advocate.

JENNIFER CURRY WINGROVE
(Ballet Instructor, Intermediate)
Renowned Ballerina of the California Ballet Company, Jennifer has performed a diverse repertoire of lead roles in her accomplished international ballet career. In her training, Jennifer was invited to study ballet in Russia where she completed a certification of the highest degree. From there, Jennifer earned the title of lead Ballerina of the California Ballet Company, and had the opportunity to perform leading roles in ballets such as Sleeping Beauty, Giselle, Romeo and Juliet, Coppélia, Beauty and the Beast, Cinderella, and many more. As an award-winning choreographer, Jennifer has choreographed for companies and schools around the nation. Recently, Jennifer shifted her endeavors to directing, producing, and choreographing aerial ballet performances, as she herself became a professional aerialist upon retiring from her ballet career. Jennifer can also be seen dancing in Coldplay’s music video “True Love,” as well as the Lifetime movie “Petals On the Wind.” Jennifer is also the founder of Wingrove Studios Photography, and specializes in Dance Photography for both students as well as professionals. Jennifer holds a Psychology degree from the University of California, San Diego, and is the owner of Pilates On Park. Jennifer’s mission is to educate young dancers and keep art alive in the community.
