

OPERATIONS TEAM MEMBER

Are you passionate about locally sourced, sustainably farmed food? Do you want to work with others who care about the cause as much as you do? Are you a problem-solver who enjoys being part of an organization that puts its customers first? We're growing our operations team in response to the incredible demand for our products and are looking for hardworking, energetic, and reliable team members who are knowledgeable about our mission. Interested? Check out the details below:

A day in the life (not limited to):

- Loading & unloading trucks, managing inventory and packing individual deliveries
- Preparing each month for packing orders
- General warehouse maintenance
- Exercising good judgment and attention to detail when problems arise
- Answering basic customer service inquiries

What we're looking for:

- Passion for our mission and knowledge of, or an eagerness to learn about, sustainable agriculture / food
- Basic food industry knowledge
- Willingness to get hands dirty and jump in to do whatever needs to get done
- Experience working with and on teams; we move fast and are still scrappy, so we need to rely on each other and have fun along the way
- Excellent communicator & ability to deliver customer service above and beyond expectations
- Creative, problem-solving ability and attention to detail
- Able to lift and move 50+ lb boxes

About Walden: Walden is a 3-year old mission driven startup that is reinvigorating local agricultural economies in support of healthier animals, soils, and communities. We market and distribute sustainable meat that you can truly feel good about - from a health, economic, environmental and ethical perspective. Through both retail and wholesale channels, we have significant market traction as the leading direct to consumer branded meat in the Northeast. Our vision includes replicating our model in other metropolitan areas and continuing along our aggressive growth trajectory.

COMPENSATION
