

Count on us for insurance products as cosmopolitan as California.

When California agents need a time-tested insurance product for the restaurants, pubs, taverns and sports bars they serve, they rely on EverGuard. We offer specialty products for a diverse marketplace and the best service under the sun.

Any business with a liquor license takes on risk. To insure against that risk, savvy agents trust EverGuard to provide state-of-the-art products that address their clients' specific needs. Just as important, they count on EverGuard for friendly service that makes obtaining a competitive quote easy.

With more than four decades of experience serving the hospitality industry, we believe in a proactive approach to partnership. That means we help our agents identify risks and guard against them. And when an emergency arises, Everguard is like a good friend: on the spot and ready to help.

Independently owned and operating in 22 states across the nation, EverGuard works with an elite community of agents and partners with A+ rated carriers.
