Attention Nashville group leaders!

Remember that you have until January 5 to request your rooms from your initial room block. All rooms that are not requested by that date will be released into the overall pool of rooms that will be available to everyone, including those who did not receive an initial room block. As you register, please be sure that individuals are only assigned to one room. From January 6 until March 17, groups will be able to add rooms (as long as they are available), make changes to existing rooms and cancel rooms. Remember to request ONLY the rooms that you need because your initial block for the 2015 convention will be determined by the rooms that you actually use this year. Adjustments will also be made if
