</table>
| 8:15 a.m. – 5:30 p.m. | 78th Annual Alumni Seminar Day
Caltech Campus
For the 78th year, Caltech alumni and their guests are given an exclusive front-row seat to the new discoveries taking place on campus. Don’t miss this opportunity to hear the lectures of renowned Caltech faculty. For the full schedule of lectures and abstracts go to pages XXXX |
| 8:45 – 4:45 p.m. | Family Activity: Mad Science
Winnett Lounge (second floor above the Bookstore)
Children between the ages of 5-12 years
$45 one session, or $80 for two sessions
Bringing children? Spark their imagination and curiosity through fun, interactive and educational activities that instill a clearer understanding of science. |
| 8:45 – 11:45 a.m. | Session I: Secret Agent Lab
James Bond? Sherlock Holmes? Austin Powers? Do you think you have what it takes to discover “Who done it?” If so, this session is for you. |
| 1:45 – 4:45 p.m. | Session II: Crazy Chemworks
Shake up a flask of fun in the lab as junior chemist! This afternoon of chemistry will be packed solid with cool reactions. You’ll learn to swirl, pour and mix like a scientist! Hop on board the chemistry express for a high-speed science experience! |
| 9:00 – 11:00 a.m. | Morning Play Date For Families with Children
Tournament Park, South of Campus
Connect with other Techer families while the kids burn off some energy on the playground. Healthy snacks and beverages provided. |

| 11:00 a.m. – 1:00 p.m. | Caltech Seismological Laboratory Exhibit Center
Exhibit Center, South Mudd
Briefings at one of two stations:
  North Hallway, Second-Floor
  The Media Center, Room 269
Caltech, along with the USGS, UC Berkeley, and the California Geological Survey, is coordinating earthquake monitoring efforts under the California Integrated Seismic Network (CISN). We will display the project’s exciting new capabilities, including an Internet-based, real-time ground-shaking map called ShakeMap, and the new High Performance Computing (HPC) Cluster, where research is taking place in seismology, planetary science, geology, environmental sciences, chemistry, and other disciplines. |
| 11:00 a.m. – 2:00 p.m. | Graduate Aerospace Laboratories (GALCIT)
Guggenheim; Self-directed tours depart from lobby
Alumni are invited to visit and tour GALCIT facilities, which may include the Lucas Adaptive Wall Wind Tunnel, the T5 Hypervelocity Shock Tunnel, the Space Structures Laboratory, and the Charyk Laboratory of Bioinspired Design. Displays in the Kármán Conference Room and Archives highlight the life and achievements of Theodore von Kármán, the founding Director of GALCIT and JPL. |
| 11:30 a.m. – 12:30 p.m. | Linde + Robinson Laboratory for Global Environmental Science
Sixty-minute tours depart from the east patio.
Wheelchair access is via the north door.
Renamed in honor of alumnus Ronald K. Linde (MS ’62, PhD ’64) and his wife, Maxine, the Linde + Robinson Laboratory for Global Environmental Science sets new standards in green design, with innovations from heating, cooling, and air-conditioning to a visionary repurposing of the historic solar telescope. Tour guests will learn about the building’s unique features and about the groundbreaking research taking place here. |
| 12:00 – 2:30 p.m. | Black Ladies Association of Caltech (BLAC) Luncheon
Caltech Alumni House
345 South Hill Ave.
All African American alumni are invited to join us for the 4th annual BLAC luncheon, a great opportunity to network, build partnerships, and forge professional relationships. A catered lunch will be provided with live jazz.

<tr>
<th>Time</th>
<th>Event</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 12:45 and 2:00 p.m.| Edible Tour of Campus
Tours depart from the Seminar Day Registration Tent
Tom Mannion, Senior Director, Student Activities and Programs, leads a special tour showing how to find, recognize, and prepare plants and herbs around campus. Sign-ups for this 75-minute tour are on a first-come, first-served basis during Seminar Day registration. Attendance is limited to 12 participants per tour. |
| 4:00 – 5:00 p.m.  | Career Workshop: Summer Undergraduate Internship Program
Aneesha Akram, Career Counselor for Internship Development and Advising Broad, Rock Auditorium
Internships play a crucial role in the success of undergraduates at the start of their careers. Learn about the Caltech Career Development Center’s program, which connects companies with the Institute’s talented students. Learn about the program’s implementation, best practices for hosting an intern at your company, and hear from students about the impact internships have already had as they take their first career steps. |
| 4:00 p.m. – 5:30 p.m.| Theater Arts (TACIT) Performance
Last Flight of the Mercenary
Open to All!
Theater Lab 275 South Hill
A young woman’s plans to marry the perfect man are thrown off course when a retired physics professor constructs a time machine, enabling her to revisit her past—and alter her future. Blending science and love, this witty and poetic comedy explores the life affecting choices we sometimes long to go back to.
$25 suggested donation. All proceeds go to the development of new science-driven plays, matching local playwrights with Caltech professors. |
| 4:45 – 5:30 p.m. | SURF Reunion
Open to All!
Gates Patio and Iris Garden
Since 1979, over 4,000 Caltech students have participated in the Summer Undergraduate Research Fellowships (SURF) program. If you were a SURFer, or are a friend of the program, please join us to reconnect with former classmates, chat with current SURF students, and learn about what’s new with undergraduate research at Caltech. |
| 5:00 p.m.         | ALL Alumni Barbecue
