A photograph of a wedding ceremony taking place in a rustic, brick-walled building. The ceremony is set on a raised platform or stage, framed by large, white, sheer curtains that hang from the ceiling. The walls are made of exposed brick, and there are arched windows in the background, one of which contains a chandelier. Greenery, including vines and leafy branches, is draped across the top of the frame and hangs from the ceiling. In the foreground, a large group of guests is seated, watching the ceremony. The bride is wearing a long, light-colored gown, and the groom is in a dark suit. They are standing on the platform, holding hands. Other people in formal attire are also visible on the platform.
