

Fulton's Back-to-School Pep Rally

This event is designed to provide parents with the opportunity to register new students, students who have moved, homeless students, and those who are transitioning to the next level, in preparation for the first day of school on August 7.

The event also includes a health fair for all parents with more than 50 vendors (22-25 per location), school supplies and a food pantry donated by sponsors, and health screenings and other resources provided by district partners and supporters. Door prizes including gift cards, bicycles, and Kindles will be distributed.
