FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CUE Art Foundation Announces New Development Associate

CUE Art Foundation is pleased to announce that Chase Martin has joined the organization as a Development Associate. He will be crucial in maintaining relationships with CUE's current financial supporters, as well as developing new sources of funding for our innovative programming.

Prior to joining CUE, Chase Martin worked as the gallery manager for Christian Berst Art Brut's New York space. Previously, he served as a development associate at Threewalls, an organization dedicated to contemporary art practice and discourse in Chicago. He is also the former director of Institute 193, a contemporary art exhibition space and publisher in Lexington, Kentucky.

For further information please contact: Deputy Director Beatrice Wolert-Weese, (212.206.3583; beatrice@cueartfoundation.org)

CUE Art Foundation is dedicated to creating essential career and educational opportunities for emerging and under-recognized artists of all ages. Through exhibitions, arts education, and public programs, CUE provides artists and audiences with sustaining and meaningful experiences and resources.

CUE's core programs include solo exhibitions for emerging and under-recognized artists, an annual fellowship for an emerging curator, mentorship and publication opportunities for emerging writers, professional development workshops for practicing artists and arts education intensives for middle and high school students.

Major support for CUE Art Foundation is provided by Agnes Gund, Anholt Services (USA) Inc., CAF American Donor Fund, Compass Group Management LLC, Compass Diversified Holdings, The Elizabeth Firestone Graham Foundation, The Joan Mitchell Foundation, Lenore Malen and Mark Nelkin, The Milton and Sally Avery Arts Foundation, Inc., William Talbot Hillman Foundation, New York State Council on the Arts with the support of Governor Andrew Cuomo and the New York State Legislature, and the New York City Department of Cultural Affairs, in partnership with the City Council.
