Marie Saccoccio was appointed to a three-year term. She is a fourth-generation East Cambridge resident. She attended New England School of Law and Yale Law School. She clerked on the United States Court of Appeals and is admitted to the Bars of Massachusetts, Colorado and Florida. Marie was instrumental in filing a petition requesting that the Cambridge Historical Commission initiate a landmark designation study for the Foundry property.