

Adult Bible Study Classes Sunday Mornings

At Huguenot Road Baptist Church, we believe that disciples are grown through Bible study and interaction with other believers. That's why we encourage you to participate in one of our Bible studies every Sunday morning. We invite you to share in LIFE together. The acronym stands for:

L—Loving Relationships
I—Intentional Caring
F—Faith Formation
E—Empowered for Ministry

Through a Bible study class you will:

- Find other Christians who will support you in your faith journey
- Experience spiritual growth through study of the scriptures
- Gain biblical knowledge and learn to apply scripture to daily living
- Find opportunities to express your faith through sharing, ministry and service to others
- Experience Christian community and find relationships with other adults
- Assist the growth of others as you share out of your journey

In this brochure, you will find information to help you choose a Bible study class. Please note there are multiple options for each age group, and you are welcome to try different communities before deciding which one is right for you. For additional information about adult study opportunities, please contact our Associate Pastor for Discipleship, Matthew Hensley.

Young Adult Class

Room 203

Teacher: Rory & Kristin Francisco

For young adults, single or married, that are career oriented. Our class focus is on learning and understanding the lessons of the Bible. We take time to discuss issues of importance that arise in our lives, and use this as a group support for those with a special need.

College Class

Room 125

Teacher: Jon Greenhill; for the latest, see www.hrbcrichmond.org/collegeage

During the summer and college breaks, a group of 18-23 year olds meet to dig into God's word to consider how God is working in the lives of college age students. During the school year, college age students meet with the young adult class.

Genesis

Room 209

Teacher: Dave Anderson

Literature: Formations (Smyth & Helwys)

A class for young couples. Most participants have young children or are thinking about starting a family. The class is discussion based versus a pure lecture style. If you are interested in thought provoking discussion and Christian fellowship please come join us as we explore this new, totally different time in your lives.

Discovery

Room 207

Teachers: Randy Camden

Literature: Formations (Smyth & Helwys)

This coed class is for median age adults who desire good fellowship and discussions oriented Bible study. Experienced leaders and strong connections are hallmarks of this class.

JOY (Just Older Youth)

Room 208

Teacher: Carol Ashworth, Kevin Patrick

Literature: Formations (Smyth & Helwys)

This co-ed class is for anyone interested in in-depth Bible study. Class members include single and married adults. The class members search for the core of Christianity using open discussion and application of scripture to the life of a disciple.

Serendipity

Room 202

Teacher: Eric Millirons; Room A, Sanctuary Narthex

Literature: Formations (Smyth & Helwys)

This class consists of median age adults who enjoy exploring the scriptures in depth. Participants enjoy spending time together and sharing out of their experiences. The class loves to welcome new members.

Spirit of Lydia

Room 200

Teacher: Laura Wert and Beth Torres

Literature: Formations (Smyth & Helwys)

Spirit of Lydia is a diverse class of women, single and married, ages 30—60. Besides enjoying rich fellowship, class members enjoy quality Bible study and engage together in mission projects.

Friendship

Room 204

Teachers: Guy Vaughan

Literature: Formations (Smyth & Helwys)

Members of this co-ed median age adult class have children from elementary to college age. Members are friendly and supportive, and they enjoy laughter in their lively, informal, Bible-based discussions.

Discovering the Depths

Room 120

Teacher: Bill Moore and Eng Heah

Literature: Challenging Discipleship-oriented Book Studies

This is a scripture-based study of current Christian books by those who are eager to discover a more meaningful application of the gospel. Participants are expected to read and reflect each week in preparation for class discussions. Openness to differing perspectives and interpretations is a must.

Happy Clay

Room 123

Teacher: Sue Hurley

Literature: Formations (Smyth & Helwys)

Single or married women, age 50 and over, who “want to know the Lord in the company of loving and caring women.” Members of this class are deeply involved in other church activities and maintain close contact with one another. The class is strengthened by socials, monthly class meetings, challenging Bible study, ministry projects, and prayer.

Koinonia

Room 206

Teacher: Harry Lanzillotti

Literature: Formations (Smith & Helwys)

This class is for men, age 50 and over. Koinonia is a very diverse class and participants enjoy lively interaction and discussions. If you are a man who desires in-depth Bible study, this class is for you.

TeemsRoom 102

Teacher: Bob Galaspie

Literature: Formations (Smyth & Helwys)

Teems is a co-ed class for those age 60 and older. The class features strong Bible teaching and good fellowship. If you desire to learn in a warm and caring fellowship, try the Teems class.

AgapeRoom 122

Teachers: Ray and Martha Parker

Literature: Formations (Smyth & Helwys)

This class is for married or single adults over age 55 who describe themselves as participators or seekers and enjoy discussion of biblical material. Each Monday evening during the school year, members of the class meet for a fellowship dinner and deeper bible study. All adults are welcome.

MorrisRoom 104

Teacher: Felix Shepard; Room E, Family Life Center

Literature: Formations (Smyth & Helwys)

This class is comprised of senior adult married couples and those who have lost spouses. Through the experienced teachers and spirited discussions, you will enjoy learning truths contained in the Bible. You will also appreciate the warm Christian fellowship.

Betty VaughanRoom 103

Teachers: Liz Bass and Shirley Hinkson

Literature: Formations (Smyth & Helwys)

This class is for senior adult women. Class members enjoy the caring, sharing, and friendly fellowship as well as excellent Bible teaching. In addition to weekly Bible study, class members meet regularly for fellowship and look forward to a "major Christmas party."

Paul CousinsRoom 105

Teacher: Tom Jarvis

Literature: Uniform Lesson Series (Smyth & Helwys)

This class for senior adult men features a skilled Bible teacher and many members with biblical knowledge. Class members enjoy regular fellowships, and they attend Wednesday night Bible study.

