Recycled Leather & Living Rooms

Extend the luxury of leather from furniture to your floors and walls.

EcoDomo leather tiles and planks are an extension of the comfort and sensational feel of luxury furniture for your eyes and feet. You can be assured your living room floors and walls will be unique, easy to maintain and guaranteed to impress!

EcoDomo recycled leathers are comparable to hardwoods for durability, density, and maintenance.

They are available as either glue-down tiles for floors and walls in our Echelon Collection or laminated to HDF with the uniclic® system with our Rainforest Collection.

Enjoy your living room like never before with EcoDomo leathers.

Available & stocked for immediate delivery.
