Author: Jen Anderson • Discussion: No Comments

Is there anything as fun as a girls' night out? Date nights and cocktail parties come with the pressure to be witty and dazzling. Wedding receptions have a certain structure to them – you can't hit the dance floor before the happy couple. At class reunions, you bounce all over the room catching up with everyone. But a girls' night out – that's when you can kick back, relax, and focus on having a good time.

Whether you're partying in Vegas with your girls, going out to dinner, or dancing all night long, we've got the plus size dresses your gals will love.

Studio Sweetheart Neckline Jumpsuit

Since girls' night out is all about fun, we're going to start with a jumpsuit instead of a dress, Eloquii's Studio Sweetheart Neckline Jumpsuit would look great on the dance floor. You'll look and feel oh so cool all night long.

This jumpsuit features hidden elastic at the back waist to ensure a perfect fit. Grippy elastic at the neckline keeps the bodice in place.

This hot little number is just made for the dance floor. It's selling out fast, so shop now instead of waiting until your next girls' night out is right around the corner.

Gold Liquid Shine Mermaid Mesh Maxi Dress

Such a long name for such a little dress! Plus Size Fix's Gold Liquid Shine Mermaid Mesh Maxi Dress gives you the best of both worlds. The maxi length sheer skirt moves when you walk or dance, while the mini-length gold foil dress shows off your legs.

Just picture that gold foil print catching the light at the club. The straps are adjustable for a better fit.

April Dress

SWAK's April Dress is fun, flirty and just what you want for a girls night out. It comes in fuschia and lagoon (pictured) – exuberant colors that signal to one and all that you and your friends are cutting loose.

The empire waist is so flattering that you may want to skip the shapewear and order dessert. The jersey knit fabric has great movement on the dance floor.
