Show Off Your Arms This Summer

Author: Jen Anderson • Discussion: No Comments

We plus size women can be extremely reluctant to go out in public with bare arms. We're terrified that people will notice our fleshy upper arms and...what exactly? Throw tomatoes at us? Chase us out of town with torches and pitchforks? Judge our bodies because they have nothing better to do with their time?

Enough! It's Summer. It's hot out. Let's free our upper arms from the tyranny of sleeves!

You may not be comfortable baring your arms in every situation, and that's fine. But as the temperature rises into the 80s, 90s and above, consider showing off your arms some of the time. You'll be more comfortable and with the right clothes, no one is going to pay any attention to your arms.

You want sleeveless tops that have generous arm holes. A too-tight opening is going to look and feel uncomfortable. A statement necklace will draw the eye away from your arms and closer to your lovely face. If it's too hot for necklaces, then try some big, attention-grabbing earrings. If you can't have bright, dangly things hanging from your earlobes in Summer, when can you? (And if it's too hot for a necklace, then it's definitely too hot for sleeves.)

Not sure where to start? Cushie b has several arm-baring tops that will have you uncovered in style.

Simple A-Line Cotton Lycra Tank

Most tanks are made to fit close to the body. They're often too snug over your hips, so you can only wear them tucked in. Which is fine, but it's not good enough for Cushie b. This tank has an A-Line shape, so it has plenty of room for your stomach and hips. Wear it untucked for a stylish, sophisticated look. The cotton/lycra blend holds its shape beautifully. It's polished enough to wear to the office under a jacket or cardi. Then take off the top layer and relax when you go out to lunch or when you're unwinding at the end of the day.

Cushie b's Simple A-Line Cotton Lycra Tank is available in Oatmeal, Mediterranean Blue, and Black.

Sleeveless Top

Cushie b's Sleeveless Top is knit from viscose yarn from Italy. The openwork at the neckline draws the eye in towards your face and away from your arms. Its A-Line shape means you'll have plenty of room for all of your curves. The arm holes are generous without revealing too much.

Wear this top out on date night, shopping with friends or to a Summer party.

Cushie b's Sleeveless Top comes in Cream and Black.

Stop Hiding Your Arms

In warm weather, there's no need to keep your upper arms covered. With these great tops – and your winning smile – no one's going to be looking at your arms anyway. Just don't forget the sunscreen.
