A Luxurious Vacation Wardrobe From Cushie b

Author: Jen Anderson • Discussion: No Comments

Packing for vacation is so hard! What will the weather be like? How many shoes can you fit into your suitcase? How many outfits per day will you need, and why isn't it only one? And what if you change your plans and go someplace unexpected?

Shorts, t-shirts and fanny packs are fine for trudging around an amusement park all day. But if you're exploring a new city, checking out the tourist attractions, wandering through museums and eating out, you want to dress up a bit more than that. And you need clothes that won't wrinkle easily since they'll be going in a suitcase. Bonus points for anything that can serve double duty – a top you can wear while sightseeing on Day 1 and then again on Day 5 when you decide to check out an art gallery. Or a comfortable, but stylish cardie you can wear on the plane and again out to dinner.

The trick is casual elegance. Lucky for all of us, Cushie b makes comfortable, stylish plus size clothes that you'll love to wear on vacation. Here are some pieces that you'll want to add to your vacation wardrobe.

High Low Hem Short Sleeve Shirt

This tee is as comfortable as other t-shirts, while looking so much nicer. It's miles away from that boxy tee you wear to the gym. The heavy cotton lycra fabric drapes beautifully. The curved hem works with your body's shape.

Wear Cushie b's High Low Hem Short Sleeve Shirt anywhere you want to be comfortable, but not sloppy: on the plane; a day at the museum; souvenir shopping; or lunch at a casual eatery.

Available in Mediterranean blue and black.

Draped Kimono Cardigan

Take one cardigan on your trip, and make it this one. The fine knit means that it's light enough to fit into your bag just in case you need it. And it's stylish enough that you won't think twice slipping it on in an over air conditioned restaurant or for a romantic late night stroll.

Wear Cushie b's Draped Kimono Cardigan over a plain tee or camisole when you want to look like a local: to that spur of the moment party; checking out a swanky hotel bar; or exploring a new place on foot.

Available in silver grey/black, deep red/wine, and teal blue/navy.

Silk Chiffon Shoulder Top

This is a great top to pack just in case. You might score last minute reservations at a nice restaurant. Or go out dancing. Or you could take a stroll along the waterfront. If you do, you'll be glad you packed this. If you don't, it won't take up too much room in your suitcase and you'll probably find an excuse to wear it anyway.

Cushie b's Silk Chiffon Shoulder Top comes in turquoise watercolor floral print, watercolor copper tone snakeskin print, and watercolor grey tone snakeskin print.

Bon Voyage

With the right travel wardrobe, you can relax in style. Then wear these pieces over and over again when you get home.
