Plus Size Cardigans With Style

Author: Jen Anderson • Discussion: No Comments

Who doesn't love a cardigan? They protect you from the winter chill or an overzealous air conditioner. We all keep a cardigan draped over the back of our desk chair. And we'd never go out to a restaurant without grabbing a cardigan – just in case.

But a cardigan can do so much more than keep us warm. They can pull an outfit together, add a pop of color or tone down a too bright top. Yet that office cardigan is usually a shapeless gray thing that goes with everything. It's just not the look you want to project. And when you're going out to dinner, you want a cardigan that completes your outfit, not covers it up.

Cushie b to the rescue! Cushie b cardigans are stylish and luxurious. Made from extra fine merino wool and Italian viscose yarn, they're unbelievably soft. The colors are so lush that even the gray looks exciting.

Draped Kimono Cardigan

Cushie b's kimono cardigans are color blocked perfection. They skim the body without hiding it. The secret is the sheer knitted lace panels that cover without concealing.

With three great color combinations available, you might not be able to pick just one.

Teal Blue/Navy Kimono Cardigan

Silver Grey/Black Kimono Cardigan

Cozy Draped Cardigan

This trend just won't quit – the long, open, drapy cardi. Here's another cardigan that adds excitement and style to any look. The periwinkle blue perks up any cold winter day. And the black goes with everything while looking chic, not bland. It's like wrapping yourself up in the world's most stylish blanket. You'll feel cozy and look fabulous.
