For the last several years, the Marquette University Student Government (MUSG) Program Board has seen a rise in frustration amongst its members. Commissioners often leave mid-semester or mid-year leaving the board understaffed and demanding more of those who remain. In addition, we have seen a lack of enthusiasm late in the year lowering the quality of our Programs. While MUSG's Program Board has done an excellent job providing quality programming for students all across campus, I believe we can do better and be more efficient while doing it.

It is my belief and the belief of many others in this administration that the root of problems is structural. The fundamental shape of Program Board has not changed since the current MUSG Governing Documents were passed in 1996. Life at Marquette has changed significantly in the last eighteen years and MUSG must adapt in order to better serve our students.

Therefore, in accordance with the authority granted to me by the MUSG By-Laws, Article VII, Section 1, Subsection I, I am hereby establishing an ad-hoc committee charged with examining the structure of the MUSG Program Board and making recommendations to make it more efficient. The committee will be chaired by Program Vice President Ryan Twaddle and comprised of Program Board Assistant Daniel Klingelhoets, Commissioner Chrystal Mattappillil, Commissioner Patrick Dimond, Timothy Hefferon, Coordinator for Campus Programs Jennifer Ciesiulka, and Graduate Assistant for Campus Activities Julianne Watterson. The PVP Twaddle shall report the activities of the committee to the MUSG Senate at each meeting.
