PRESS RELEASE

Voters Urged to Return Ballots Before Deadline

Mid-Term Elections are Critical for Future of Clark County

[Vancouver, WA], [Tuesday, November 4, 2014]: The 2014 general election is winding to a close with ballots due at the Clark County Elections office no later than 8pm tonight. Ballots must be postmarked with Tuesday's date to be counted. Ballots may also be returned to one of several ballot boxes located throughout Clark County.

Clark County Democrats Vice-Chairperson Elizabeth Campbell said, "Today is Election Day, and the Clark County Democrats thank all of our Democratic candidates for their willingness to run for elective office. We deeply appreciate the time, money and effort that they have put into their campaigns. These men and women have worked with integrity for months because they want to improve the lives of Clark County residents. We wish these candidates success in their campaigns. We urge all Clark County voters to make sure that their ballots are turned in, or postmarked, today by 8 p.m. We hope that Clark County has a record turnout in this general election!"
