Preamble

These bylaws are intended to provide direction to the Clark County Democratic Central Committee, and are consistent with state and federal laws, and the governing documents of the Washington State Democratic Central Committee and the Democratic National Committee.

CCDCC BYLAWS VERSION 2016-03

Article 1: Name

The name of this organization is the Clark County Democratic Central Committee (CCDCC), also known as the Clark County Democrats.

Article 2: Purpose

- 2.1 The CCDCC shall function continuously for the growth and influence of the Democratic Party and for the following purposes:
 - 2.1.1 Recruit and promote the highest quality Democratic Party candidates for elective office
 - 2.1.2 Support vigorously the nominees and platforms of the Democratic Party in national, state, and local elections
 - 2.1.3 Build and maintain an effective grass-roots party organization that can help win elections and maximize the Democratic vote
 - 2.1.4 Recruit new members and encourage participation in the local, state, and national Democratic Party
 - 2.1.5 Foster and perpetuate the ideas and principles of the Democratic Party
 - 2.1.6 Acquaint voters with the issues and with Democratic candidates
 - 2.1.7 Coordinate Democratic campaign efforts in Clark County and cooperate with the National, State, Legislative District and County Democratic committees
 - 2.1.8 Be a truly representative party open to all who declare themselves to be Democrats
 - 2.1.9 Stimulate an active interest in governmental and community affairs

Article 3: Membership

- 3.1 All Clark County Washington residents who are registered voters and declare their affiliation with the Democratic Party are considered to be Democrats, and are eligible to become members of the CCDCC.
- 3.2 The CCDCC membership shall include:
 - 3.2.1 all duly elected, appointed, and acting Democratic Precinct Committee Officers (PCOs).
 - a) Elected PCOs are those elected in the primary or general elections in even-numbered years. They must be residents of the precinct in which they serve and meet all other qualifications as established by state and local statutes. They serve for two years starting December 1st in the year in which they are elected.
 - (i) Should an elected PCO change his/her residence to a different precinct during his/her elected term, he/she must notify the CCDCC and resign and may seek appointment into his/her new residing precinct, following the same approval procedures for acting and appointed PCO's.
 - b) Appointed PCOs are nominated by a their respective Legislative District Democratic Central Committees (LD) and confirmed by the CCDCC to fill PCO positions in the precincts in which they reside. These PCOs shall serve until the end of the two-year term that would have been served by an elected PCO unless a subsequent nominee proposed by the LD and confirmed by the CCDCC replaces them. Appointed PCO's have the same privileges and responsibilities as Acting or Elected PCOs with the exception of voting in the county reorganization and voting to replace elected democratic office holders. Appointed PCOs may only vote in those cases if they have been appointed longer than 90 days or were appointed within the last 90 days transferring as an Acting or Elected PCO from another precinct, having been in total PCO service longer than 90 days.

- c) Acting PCOs are nominated by their respective Legislative District committees and confirmed by the CCDCC to act as PCOs in precincts other than the ones in which they reside. These PCOs shall serve until the end of a two-year term that would have been served by an elected PCO unless they are replaced by appointment of a qualified resident of the precinct by the LDDCC and confirmed by the CCDCC. Acting PCOs have the same privileges and responsibilities as Appointed or Elected PCOs with the exception of voting in the county reorganization and voting to replace elected democratic office holders.
- 3.2.2 The six elected officers of the CCDCC: County Chair, Vice-Chair (who shall be of the opposite gender of the chair), Secretary, Treasurer, State Committeeman and State Committeewoman who serve for two-year terms. They are elected at the organizational meeting by the Elected and Appointed PCOs, which takes place following the general election in even-numbered years.
- 3.2.3 The 14th, 17th, 18th, 20th & 49th Legislative District (LD) Chairs, or their duly appointed representatives, who reside in Clark County. The chairs are elected at their respective organizational meetings and serve for two years.
- 3.2.4 Democratic elected officials for partisan offices who reside in Clark County, Washington State Democratic Central Committee (WSDCC) and Democratic National Committee (DNC) members who reside in Clark County.
- 3.2.5 The 14th, 17th, 18th, 20th & 49th Chairs of Democratic Party clubs having 20 or more members that the CCDCC may recognize by resolution.

Article 4: Duties

- 4.1 PCOs are expected to promote the Democratic Party in their precincts, assist in the election of Democrats, attend CCDCC and LD meetings, participate in the work of the Party, submit the names of persons in the precincts to work as CCDCC elections observers, and to contribute to the work of the party as defined in the latest version of the "Washington State Democrats PCO Handbook".
- 4.2 The County Chair shall be the presiding officer of the CCDCC and of the Executive Committee (EC). The Chair shall encourage participation; activate committees, delegate responsibilities, and exercise leadership to strengthen the party, consistent with the decisions and directions of the CCDCC. The Chair shall act as spokesperson for the CCDCC and direct the organization in a manner consistent with EC strategy and decisions. The Chair shall convene and conduct monthly CCDCC and EC meetings and other special meetings required to execute the functions of the CCDCC. The Chair shall convene the Clark County Democratic Convention in even-numbered years.

CCDCC BYLAWS VERSION 2016-03

- 4.3 The Vice Chair shall perform those responsibilities delegated by the Chair and shall preside at meetings in the absence of the Chair.
- 4.4 The Secretary shall keep minutes and maintain a sign-in attendance record of all CCDCC meetings and CCDCC EC meetings. The Secretary shall have readily available upon request such papers as meeting minutes, lists of CCDCC members (including current PCOs) and EC members, a roster of Election Observers, Bylaws, Charter, Caucus and Convention Rules, and copies of precinct maps. The Secretary shall provide an electronic draft of the minutes to committee members within 14 days of the meeting. The secretary shall maintain and update the CCDCC Policies & Procedures Manual after board or committee actions adding, deleting or modifying the content.
- 4.5 The Treasurer shall keep complete books of accounts, which accurately reflect the receipts, expenditures, assets and liabilities of the CCDCC and shall comply with Public Disclosure Commission laws and regulations. The Treasurer shall receipt for all funds coming into the custody of the CCDCC or designate how they will be receipted. The Treasurer shall deposit funds in financial institutions as ~~are~~ approved by the EC within the time period required by law.
- 4.5.1 Disbursements by check or electronic means shall be signed/approved by one of the following authorized officers: Treasurer, Chair, Vice-Chair or a “deputy treasurer”
- a) Disbursements of $1000 or more shall require the signatures or approvals of two of the following officers: Treasurer, Chair, Vice-Chair or a “deputy treasurer”.
 - b) If a disbursement exceeding $1000 dollars is considered “time sensitive” or an “emergency expense” and the treasurer or chair is unable to obtain a second approval or signature in the required timeframe (e.g., as in a campaign expense the day before an election, etc.), the disbursing officer of the funds may do so with only one signature or approval but must send full documentation via email to each CCDCC board members as well as account for the expense at the next regularly scheduled EC meeting.
- 4.5.2 All CCDCC expenditures exempt and non-exempt must be approved by the CCDCC body either in the form of an annual budget or by special request as needed for items not addressed in the budget. All targeted non-exempt expenditures for candidates shall be approved by the Target Fund Committee
- 4.5.3 There shall be separate accounts for the exempt expenditures and for the non-exempt expenditures which may include separate financial institutions.
- 4.5.4 The Treasurer shall be prepared to report the financial status of the CCDCC at any meeting of the CCDCC or EC. Projects such as fundraisers shall be separately reported with details of income or expense by category, and net gain or loss. An annual written statement at the end of the year shall reflect the year’s financial transactions.
- 4.5.5 A “Financial Review” shall be performed on the Treasurer’s books at the end of each biennium, or upon the resignation, removal or death the Treasurer. Financial Reviews shall be overseen by a Financial Review Committee per the requirements in Section 7.12 of these bylaws
- 4.5.6 If the Treasurer determines that it is beneficial to appoint a Deputy Treasurer, then the Treasurer shall appoint an individual, to be approved by the EC. Any or all duties of the

CCDCC BYLAWS VERSION 2016-03

Deputy Treasurer shall be determined by the Treasurer. The Deputy Treasurer shall report directly to The Treasurer.

- 4.6 The State Committeeman and State Committeewoman shall represent the CCDCC at the WSDCC meetings, being cognizant of the wishes and instructions of the CCDCC, and shall apprise the CCDCC on the activities of the State organization.
- 4.7 The LD organizations and the CCDCC will work together to recruit and elect Democrats to the State Legislature and county partisan offices, and to coordinate campaign efforts across county lines that exist within any district.

Article 5: Executive Committee and CCDCC Operations

- 5.1 The Executive Committee shall formulate policies, authorize expenditures, plan activities, and make recommendations independently to the extent the CCDCC has authorized in advance by resolution, but otherwise subject to final approval by the CCDCC.
- 5.2 The Executive Committee (EC) shall be comprised of the following elected and appointed voting members:
 - 5.2.1 The elected officers of the CCDCC: Chair, Vice Chair, Treasurer, Secretary, State Committeeman, State Committeewoman.
 - 5.2.2 Chairs of the 14th, 17th, 18th, 20th & 49th LDs, or their duly appointed representatives who reside in Clark County.
 - 5.2.3 The President/Chair or duly appointed representative of the 'Young Democrats of Clark County' and 'Clark County Democratic Women', provided that:
 - They submit a copy of their bylaws
 - They provide a current list of officers
 - They are recognized by the state or national organizationRequires the approval of the Executive Committee (EC), and seats may be suspended by a majority vote of the EC should the EC find reason to do so.

 - 5.2.5 Any other Clark County resident who serves on the WSDCC (e.g. State Executive Board) or the DNC.
- 5.3 Appointment of Chairs of standing committees and at-large Board members shall be made by the Chair subject to approval by the Executive Committee and the CCDCC body.
- 5.4 All Appointments to standing committees, open positions and other positions on the Executive Committee that are not elected by the membership shall be made taking into consideration fairness, equality and diversity of the appointees as in their home Legislative District, gender, race and other diversity factors.
- 5.5 The CCDCC bylaws provide the basic principles and goals of the CCDCC organization. To maintain operational efficiency of the CCDCC, member committees are responsible for creating, updating and maintaining operational policies and procedures for the purpose of enabling the CCDCC to conduct its day to day business and operations in a consistent and productive manner. Operational Policies and Procedures are intended to guarantee transparency and the retention of institutional knowledge through reorganizations and board and committee member transitions. Examples of Operational Policies & Procedures may include Password & Online Security for CCDCC Websites, Bank Account Management Procedures, etc. The EC secretary is responsible for maintaining the “CCDCC Operational Policies & Procedures Manual” (OPPM). Operational Policies & Procedures contained in the OPPM:

- 5.5.1 Are created and updated as necessary by member committees as defined in Section 7 and the EC for their specific areas of responsibility within the CCDCC and the EC.
 - 5.5.2 Remain in effect before, during and after reorganizations and individual member changes on committees
 - 5.5.3 May include or have attached procedures, rules and processes to achieve the goals of a policy
 - 5.5.4 The format of the CCDCC OPPM shall be set by the EC and maintained by the CCDCC Secretary.
- 5.6 The chair may appoint a Parliamentarian with majority vote of the Executive Committee who is a non-voting member of the Executive Committee and who will advise the chair on questions of procedure and Robert’s Rules of Order; bylaws interpretation during meetings and be available to assist with mediation of disputes between CCDCC members. The Parliamentarian is expected to regularly attend EC and general CCDCC meetings; have a thorough understanding of Robert’s Rules of Orders and CCDCC bylaws; and at his/her discretion appoint a deputy to serve in his/her absence or ad hoc committees as needed to help resolve bylaws disputes or other conflicts brought to his/her attention. The Parliamentarian may be removed by the EC by a 2/3 majority vote.

Article 6: Meetings & Quorums

- 6.1 The biennial organizational meeting shall be held in compliance with state law RCW 29(A).80.30 which reads in part that authorized officers of the retiring committee shall cause notice of the time and place of such meeting to be mailed to each PCO, and that the meeting shall be held at an easily accessible location within the county. The organizational meeting shall elect officers and shall appoint a committee to review and propose amendments to these Bylaws.
- 6.2 Regular meetings shall be held on the second Monday of each month. The County Chair shall be responsible for setting the time and place.
- 6.3 EC meetings shall be held monthly at a time and place established by the Chair and made known to CCDCC members.
- 6.4 Special meetings of the CCDCC and/or the EC shall be held at the order of the Chair or by written request to the Chair of five (5) EC Members. The Chair shall set the meeting date, which must be within fifteen (15) days of such a request.
- 6.5 The members present shall constitute a quorum at any regularly scheduled CCDCC or EC meeting of which proper notice has been given. For other meetings of which proper notice has been given, twenty percent (20%) of the membership shall constitute a quorum of the CCDCC. Sixty percent (60%) of officers shall constitute a quorum of the EC.

Operational policies are approved by the EC but specific procedures to carry out specific policies may be added by Committees directly to their policies to the CCDCC OPPM (Office Policies and Procedures Manual). Contact information for committee chairs, and a list of committee members, will be made available to the membership.

Article 8: Eligibility to Vote

8.1 Voting rights in the CCDCC are reserved to elected and appointed PCOs or their proxies, elected officers, and chairs of the LDs or their duly-appointed representatives, who reside in Clark County. In addition, all elected Democratic officials at each county, state and national level who reside in Clark County shall have voting rights in the CCDCC on any issue which comes before the committee EXCEPT the organizational meeting and meetings for filling the unexpired term of an elected Democratic official, where only elected PCOs may vote. Proxies are not permitted at organizational meetings according to State party bylaws.

8.2 Only elected or appointed PCOs can designate proxies to vote at a specific meeting. To be recognized, a PCO's proxy must be carried by a resident of the PCO's precinct, show the proxy's name, the meeting date and the PCO's signature, and be presented to the Chair or Secretary before voting commences.

Proxies shall not be allowed for officers or Democratic Officials who are not PCO's.

Article 9: Organizational Meetings and Replacement of Elected Public Officers

9.1 Organizational meetings and meetings for filling the unexpired term of an elected Democratic official where only elected PCOs are allowed by statute to vote will follow the rules set out by the state (refer to party documents, which can be found on the Washington State Democrats web page).

CCDCC BYLAWS VERSION 2016-03

Article 10: Rules of Procedure

- 10.01 Notices – At least ten (10) days prior notice of the time and place shall be given of all organizational meetings, regular meetings of the CCDCC and the EC, and special meetings. The notice shall so state if the business will include removing or replacing a CCDCC officer or the nomination of candidates to fill a vacant public partisan elective office. If the business will include considering proposed amendments to these Bylaws, the notice shall include the current and proposed text. Timely notification on the CCDCC website shall suffice for regular meetings. Notice of special meetings must be given to each member by email, phone, or mail, whichever is necessary to ensure receipt. Notice to PCOs of organization meetings and notice that nomination of candidates to fill a vacant public partisan elective office will occur shall be provided by email, phone, or mail whichever is necessary to ensure receipt.
- 10.02 Endorsement
- 10.02.1 In a partisan primary election in which two (2) or more Democrats are running, the CCDCC shall not endorse the candidacy of any person for public office. Individual members, however, may do so, but shall not state or imply that this is in their capacity as elected party officers.
- 10.02.2 CCDCC endorsement of a partisan candidate shall be made by a formal motion of endorsement approved by a majority vote at a regularly scheduled meeting. The allocation by the Target Fund Committee of funds, which are contributed for the support of Democratic candidates, shall not constitute an endorsement nor shall the decisions by the Target Fund Committee be limited by the endorsement procedure.
- 10.02.3 Endorsements in Non-Partisan elections or for ballot measures and referendums may be made in accordance with the current Non-Partisan Endorsements Policies approved by the CCDCC.
- 10.03 Vacancy in an elected office of the CCDCC – The elected office shall be filled at a regular or special meeting following notification of members, not to exceed 45 days after resignation. The candidate must receive a majority vote of all members present. In contests where three or more candidates are nominated, if no person has a majority, the candidate receiving the least votes shall be dropped and balloting shall be repeated using the remaining names. This process shall be repeated until a candidate receives a majority. Vote shall be by written, signed ballot except, when there is no opposition, a voice vote casting a unanimous ballot shall be permitted.
- 10.04 Resignation of elected CCDCC officers – An elected CCDCC officer must resign upon filing for or publicly announcing candidacy for a paid elective public office, or being elected to another elective office in the CCDCC. Notice of resignation must be presented to the EC in writing. An elected CCDCC officer will be considered to have resigned upon missing three consecutive EC meetings without submitting written notification.
- 10.05 Vacant Precincts – The LD Chair may personally undertake or delegate the responsibility for solicitation of a resignation from an appointed or acting PCO who has become inactive. Upon receipt of the resignation, the LD Chair shall declare that precinct vacant and appoint a new PCO in that precinct. A precinct shall also be declared vacant when the PCO moves out of the precinct or dies.

All PCO appointments shall be referred to the CCDCC for confirmation.

- 10.06 Rights of non-members – At meetings, the Chair shall recognize members of the CCDCC first, but the Chair may, at his or her discretion, then recognize any non-member who may then be heard.
- 10.07 Resolutions for presentation to the CCDCC shall be in written form and received by the Issues and Resolutions Committee 30 days prior to the date of the next general meeting. Resolutions must comply with rules of considerations and adoptions of resolutions by the WSDCC, which can be found on the Washington State Democrats website under ‘Documents’. The committee will make recommendations to the EC who, after consideration, will bring the resolution forward to the CCDCC with the Board’s recommendations. Alternatively, the resolution must be signed by ten (10) PCOs, and receive a two-thirds vote of a quorum to be considered.
- 10.08 Changes to these bylaws may be made in one of the following methods:
- 10.08.01 Bylaws Committee (BYC) on its own initiative
- a) BYC reports its proposed change to the EC with its recommendations and justification;
 - b) The proposed change is announced at the next regularly scheduled CCDCC meeting;
 - c) The proposed change is made available on the CCDCC website with an announcement that a vote will be taken at the next scheduled general meeting;
 - d) Where a 2/3rds vote of a quorum is required to approve the proposed change
- 10.08.02 Member Sponsored Change via Committee
- a) Proposed change is submitted to the BYC or EC in written form and signed by 10 CCDCC PCOs;
 - b) BYC considers change and reports its recommendation to the EC and PCOs who submitted the change;
 - c) Proposed change with the EC recommendation is announced at the next regularly scheduled CCDCC meeting.
 - d) The proposed change is made available on the CCDCC website with an announcement that a vote will be taken at the next scheduled general meeting;
 - e) Where a 2/3rds vote of a quorum is required to approve the proposed change
- 10.08.03 Member Sponsored Change Direct to CCDCC
- a) Proposed change in written form and signed by 20 PCOs;
 - b) The proposed change is announced at the next regularly scheduled CCDCC meeting;
 - c) The proposed change is made available on the CCDCC website with an announcement that a vote will be taken at the next

CCDCC BYLAWS VERSION 2016-03

- scheduled general meeting;
 - d) Where a 2/3rds vote of a quorum is required to approve the proposed change
- 10.09 Request for Funds – All budget requests shall be presented in writing to the EC who may direct the request to the Budget and Finance Committee if appropriate for review and recommendation.
- 10.10 The bylaws govern how the CCDCC functions; Robert Rules of Orders Newly Revised governs how meetings are conducted. Invoking suspension of the rules only applies to Robert Rules of Orders Newly Revised, not the bylaws.

9/12/2016	Article 7	Standing Committees	Recommended standing committees	2016-03
9/12/2016	7.01	Most language under target fund committee deleted: Target Fund Committee – A committee composed of the elected officers of the CCDCC and the Chairperson and a duly-appointed representative of each LD located in whole or in part within Clark County. The committee will decide on the distribution of any targeted funds. Targeted funds (hard money) are defined as monies to the county party for distribution for political campaigns within the county or legislative districts as defined above. Such monies, however, cannot be directed by the entity giving them to the party as to the final recipient. 7.01.1 As a general rule, such distribution for any campaign should be made after an understanding of the most needs of the community. When the meeting notice is given to each committee member at least (5) days prior to the meeting the actions of those committee members present shall be binding. If circumstances reasonably require swifter action, the committee may be informed of the meeting electronically or by phone and may participate electronically or by phone but a quorum of at least five (5) members is required to take action on proposed fund distribution. 7.01.2 A record of all the committee’s deliberations and decisions shall be made, retained by the most senior committee member present, and maintained by the Secretary.	Target Fund Committee – A committee composed of the elected officers of the CCDCC.	2016-03
