Welcome to our monthly meeting. We are not a government agency or a registered “non-profit” (e.g., 501c, etc) We are a private organization operating under our county bylaws, the state bylaws & charter and our own set of operating policies and procedures adopted by our executive committee. All attendees are asked to follow our conduct code and rules.

• GENERAL RULES

1. Filming or live streaming of our meeting is not allowed. Candidates may be filmed by their staff during their presentations.
2. Families are welcome to come but there are no childcare services available.
3. Please be respectful of others when they speak, do not interrupt or react loudly to their comments.

• VOTING AT COUNTY MEETINGS

1. With a few exceptions, only Precinct Committee Officers (PCO) who were elected in 2016, appointed and approved by the county as an “appointed” or “acting” PCO are eligible to vote on issues.
2. PCOs are asked to arrive early to our meetings to sign in and be properly credentialed to vote. PCOs will receive a blue numbered card to raise for their vote during the meeting. These cards must be returned at the end of the meeting. Late arrivals should wait for an appropriate moment to approach the Secretary to sign in and receive a card.
3. PCO’s approved at the first part of tonight’s meeting will receive a blue card and be eligible immediately to vote on county issues.
4. Reports from officers and committee chairs are not voted on, they are simply presented (“filed”). Time permitting, there may be an opportunity for questions after the report is filed.

• PARTICIPATING IN THE DISCUSSION

1. To speak on an issue being discussed, raise your hand. When recognized by the Chair, stand up, identify yourself, which precinct and speak loudly. Remain standing while speaking unless asked to come to the front to use a microphone. Always address the Chair directly with your remarks. Speak only about the subject being discussed. Please be brief as possible so we may hear from as many people possible on a subject.
2. Speaking when not recognized, foul language, outbursts and disrespect to other members or the officers may result in you being asked to leave the meeting.
3. The chair may limit discussion to a specific time limit for the topic, a time limit per speaker or in other ways necessary to stay on topic and on schedule
