Linda Bass Joins Dispute Resolution Services of North Texas as Volunteer Coordinator/Trainer

(Fort Worth, Texas)... Jacqueline Flynt, executive director of [Dispute Resolution Services of North Texas Inc.](http://Dispute Resolution Services of North Texas Inc.), Tarrant County's dispute resolution center that focuses on the peaceable and expeditious resolution of citizen disputes, has announced that Linda Bass has joined DRS North Texas as volunteer coordinator/trainer, a new position at the agency.

In addition to supporting current volunteers and helping identify those who may wish to volunteer in the future, Ms. Bass will provide relevant quality mediation training for current volunteers and during the series of conflict resolution courses offered by DRS North. She will also work with case specialists on implementing an equitable system of mediation assignments.

"Our goal is to give the volunteers more mediation opportunities ideally suited to respective skill sets and experience levels and to increase their levels of expertise," said Ms. Bass. "We can then leverage opportunities and resources available for parties who seek dispute resolution through DRS North Texas."

Ms. Bass brings to her role 10 years as a co-mediator with DRS North Texas and over 30 years professional P&C claims experience with State Farm Insurance. She and the other DRS team members work to support the 250-plus volunteers who provide quality, low cost mediation services for Tarrant County courts and communities-

Founded in 1982 and serving Tarrant County and surrounding areas, Dispute Resolution Services of North Texas Inc. is a non-profit [community dispute resolution](http://community dispute resolution) center, an organization of professional volunteer mediators who provide affordable mediation services and teach mediation and dispute and conflict resolution, an effective alternative to litigation.
