Beth Landry Joins Caregiver, Inc., as President of Operations in Indiana, Tennessee and Ohio

(Fort Worth, TX...) Mark Lashley, President and CEO of Caregiver, Inc., a leading provider of services to adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities, has announced the appointment of Beth Landry as President of Operations for Caregiver's recently acquired businesses in Indiana, Tennessee and Ohio.

"Caregiver, Inc. has grown significantly outside of Texas in 2018," stated Lashley. "We needed a top executive to lead and integrate our recently and newly acquired businesses, especially as we anticipate acceleration of acquisitions throughout 2019."

Beth Landry (left) was most recently a Senior Vice President at Boston-based Seniorlink, an innovative provider of home and community-based adult programs that utilize technology and services to support caregivers and keep loved ones at home. There, Landry was responsible for over $130 million in revenue and 375 employees operating in seven states. During her tenure, she improved employee retention, catalyzed company growth, increased consumer engagement and service quality and inspired and incorporated numerous technological advances.

Landry began her career as a Staff Physical Therapist with NovaCare and quickly progressed to executive and leadership roles. After nine years with NovaCare, she led teams for Gentiva, Aegis Therapies and Harden Healthcare. She holds a B.S. in Kinesiology from the University of Colorado, Boulder and a B.S. in Physical Therapy from the University of Colorado Health Sciences Center in Denver.

"In Beth we've found an exceptional leader," Lashley added. "We couldn't be more excited about the leadership and skills that she brings to the organization at this exciting time."

As Caregiver grows, the company looks forward to expanded business and employment opportunities, according to Gary Nettis, Vice President, Growth & Development. For information, email Gary.Nettis@cg-idd.com or call (440) 724-3466. To learn more about Caregiver, Inc., visit www.cg-idd.com today.
