Theory

All students taking private lessons receive theory or Solfège instruction free of cost. Music theory, the study of how music works, is an important part of every music student's education. Music Theory is essential to the learning musician as it enhances the ability to read, write and understand music, as well as teaching the basics of composition, arranging, creating original melodies, harmonies and chords.

Financial Aid and Scholarship

FINANCIAL AID

If you are unable to pay your tuition in full, you may apply for financial aid. To qualify for financial aid, each applicant must submit proof of income including:

1040 (2014) tax return, W-2 or 1099 (2014), current pay stub (2015), Public Assistance, Unemployment Insurance, Social Security Income, and scholarship statements. Financial Aid applications are available in our offices, or may be downloaded off our web site at, www.newarkschoolofthearts.org

GATEWAY TO THE ARTS Grant

Is available to newcomers to the United States residing in Newark. Recipients receive %40 off regular tuition.

Audition Preparation and Performances

The Newark School of the Arts produces over 50 concerts, recitals and studio performances each year. All students are required to prepare and perform in studio recitals each semester as well as the occasional special themed concerts. Performing in front of an audience is essential to the student's learning process and is great preparation for auditions. Any student planning an audition should consult with their instructor to choose repertoire and plan performances as soon as possible.

I.C.A.N. PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

(Initiative for Children's Arts in Newark)
For the 7th year, the Newark School of the Arts (NSA) is providing an exclusive arts program for Newark Public School and Private School Students. NSA received funding from the Rivendell Foundation and the Aviation Development Council to provide one semester of discounted rates for new registrants. Parents/Guardians are required to complete the NSA applications form, as well as the supplemental ICAN registration form (available on-line, or at our office) to be eligible for these deeply discounted rates for private lessons in music, or group lessons in dance, drama and visual Arts
