

Jenevieve Hubbard

Jenevieve Hubbard is a painter and performance artist. Her undergraduate studies were in fine art. She spent much of her childhood in Native Y'Upik Villages in Alaska and her adult years in the city. She began creating as a means of returning to elemental themes of her childhood by drawing on mythology from stories the village elders shared, to daily ritual and to age-old symbols reduced to their most intrinsic meaning.